EXPLANATION.

The entries in this Index are primarily under authors, but title and subject entries are introduced whenever they seem likely to be of use. Noteworthy imprints are referred to under the name of the place.

SMALL CAPITALS are used for subject headings under which a considerable number of titles are entered.

Some of the miscellaneous pamphlets of little importance, catalogued in Parts IV and V, have not been individually entered in the Index, but it is believed that every entry has been made which is likely to be of practical utility.

HARTFORD
PRESS OF THE CASE LOCKWOOD & BRAINARD COMPANY

CONDITIONS OF SALE.

1. The highest bidder to be the buyer, and if any dispute arise between two or more bidders, the Lot so in dispute shall be immediately put up again and re-sold.

2. The purchasers to give their names and addresses, and to pay down twenty-five per cent. on the dollar in part payment, or the whole of the purchase-money, if required, in default of which the Lot or Lots so purchased to be immediately put up again and re-sold.

3. The Lots to be taken away at the buyer's expense and risk within three days from the conclusion of the sale, and the remainder of the purchase-money to be absolutely paid, or otherwise settled for to the satisfaction of the vendors, on or before delivery: in default of which Messrs. GEO. A. LEAVITT & CO. will not hold themselves responsible, if the Lots be lost, stolen, damaged, or destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser.

4. In preparing the Catalogue, care has been taken to make the description of every book full and accurate, and every deficiency and imperfection which was discovered has been noted: but the sale of any Volume or Lot is not to be set aside on account of any error in the description. The books will be exposed for public exhibition one or more days, and will be sold just as they are without recourse.

5. To prevent inaccuracy in delivery and inconvenience in the settlement of the purchases, no lot can, on any account, be removed during the sale.

6. Upon failure of complying with the above conditions, the money deposited in part payment shall be forfeited; all Lots uncleared within the time aforesaid shall be re-sold by public or private sale, without further notice, and the deficiency (if any) attending such re-sale, shall be made good by the defaulter at this sale, together with all charges attending the same. This condition is without prejudice to the right of the Auctioneers to enforce the contract made at this sale, without such re-sale, if they think fit.

PREFACE.

In compliance with positive directions given by the late Mr. George Brinley, his whole collection of books relating to America will be offered for sale by auction. The Catalogue of the First Part of this collection is now submitted to the public. Few of those into whose hands it is likely to fall need be informed that — within the field it covers — it comprises a greater number of volumes remarkable for their rarity, value, and interest to special collectors and to book-lovers in general, than were ever before brought together in an American sale-room. The titles of the books and tracts, though rarely given without abbreviation, will be found sufficiently full to distinguish the edition or impression, and accuracy of description as regards binding and general condition has been aimed at, throughout. All imperfections discovered by the compiler of the catalogue have been pointed out; though a rigorous collation of every volume was, under the circumstances, impossible.

Some critical readers may object to the frequent recurrence of the terms "scarce," "rare," "superlatively rare," and so on; and if such terms have been misapplied the objection is certainly a valid one. But it is believed that a thorough examination of the catalogue will show that reference to the rarity of a book or tract has been omitted when it might fairly have been made, ten times as often as it has been made without warrant of critical bibliography. Turn, for example, to the collection of "Books printed in New England, 1640–1709" (pages 87–126), and to that of the "Works of the Mathers" (pp. 127–176), and of the six hundred and fifty consecutive titles there are scarcely twenty that any American bibliographer could hesitate to mark "rare," or "very rare."

The general plan of the Catalogue is indicated, as regards the First Part, by the table of Contents, prefixed. The arrangement — it can hardly be called a classification — is substantially that which was adopted by Mr. Brinley himself, for his book-shelves. A strictly alphabetical arrangement, by authors' names or titles, would perhaps have been more acceptable to bibliographers, but the extent of the library rendered such an arrangement impracticable, and it seemed inappropriate to the sale-catalogue of a library which is not less remarkable for the completeness of its collections in special departments, than by the number of its titles.

The Second Part will comprise books relating to New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, and Delaware, with special collections of works printed by William Bradford, Reynier Jansen, A. Bradford, S. Keimer, Christopher Sauer, Benjamin Franklin, and other early printers, and a collection of works relating to the Quakers; Maryland, Virginia, and the Southern colonies and states; the American Revolution; Washingtoniana; the United States, since the establishment of Independence; the West, California, and the Pacific coast; Mexico, Central America, the West Indies, and South America; the American Indians, and their Languages; American Biography; American Poetry; and Books printed in America from 1709 to 1776.

The Third Part will include American Bibles; Psalmody, and Music; books relating to Episcopacy in the U. States, Methodism, the Baptists, and other denominations; Arts and Sciences; Education, including early School Books; Chap Books (a large and curious collection); Bibliography, Catalogues, etc.; Miscellaneous Works; Almanacs; Broadsides; Maps, Prints, and Autographs.

Eiusdem praeterea Legationis Babylonicae Libritres, etc. Basileae, apud Ioannem Bebelium, 1533. — PII PONT. MAX. [Æneæ Silvii] Decadum Epitome Blondi, qva omnis ab inclinato Romanorum imperio historia . . . complectitur. Basiliæ, apud Ioannem Bebelium, 1533. In one vol., old calf. folio.

A volume of remarkable interest to American collectors. It contains RICHARD EDEN'S copy of Peter Martyr, and the one, manifestly, which he used in translating "The Decades of the Newe Worlde," printed in 1555. It has his autograph on the title-page, and its margins and two blank pages are full of his MANUSCRIPT NOTES, explanations, and references, among which he has, here and there, roughly sketched little outline maps of islands, etc., mentioned in the text, e. g. "Insula Canibalium vel Caribum." On a guard-leaf, he has drawn "Hispaniola," on a somewhat larger scale than the margin permitted, writing the designations of prominent features of the coast.

This edition of Peter Martyr was reprinted from that of Alcala of 1516, with the addition (ll. 68–75) of an abstract of the fourth decade, "de Insulis nuper inventis." See Trömel, No. 5; Harrisse, pp. 301; Sabin's Dictionary, No. 1557. Bound with it, is an edition (same date and press) of Biondo's Epitome of the historical Decades of Æneas Sylvius (Pope Pius II.).

The volume has the book-plates of Thomas Robinson, Fellow of Merton College, and "Joannis Milner, A. M. è Coll. Sti. Petri, Cantab.," and the autographs of several other possessors, the latest being that of "Jno. Davis" (of Plymouth). At the sale of Judge Davis's library, 1847, it was purchased by Mr. Geo. F. Guild, from whose library it came to Mr. Brinley, in 1853.

4° Paris, chez Clavde Collet, 1632

An EXCEPTIONALLY FINE copy of the Best Edition of Champlain. It was obtained, a few years ago, from a private library in France, in which, apparently, it had rested undisturbed since it received its 17th century binding. The description and collation agree with Sabin's (Dictionary, No. 11839) and Field's (Ind. Bibliog., No. 268), except in two particulars. The map has the inscription: "Faicte l'an 1632 par le sieur de Champlain," and, its two sheets having been joined in one, it is inserted in its proper place, after p. 210 of the Second Part, and immediately before the "Table povr cognoistre les lievx remarqvables en ceste Carte." (It is usually found—when found at all—at the end of the volume, separated from its Table of Reference, by the "Traitté de la Marine" and specimens of the Indian Languages.) The "blank leaf" after page 210 (the 4th leaf of Qq.) has been removed, or cut down to form a guard. The united sheets of the map measure 33½ by 20⅜ inches, between the outer lines of the border. The impression is excellent; and so are the impressions of the five copper-plates, pp. 245, 259, 265, 291, and 304.

Added, An Account of the Shameful Miscarriage of the Late Expedition against Port-Royal, pp. (8), 39, half calf, neat. 8° London, [?] 1708

Only a tolerably good copy of this EXTREMELY RARE tract. A (blank) corner is torn from the Title-leaf and the bottom line slightly cut into by the binder; and the 2d and 3d prelim. leaves have lost their inner corners, at the bottom, the missing words having been supplied in manuscript; a few words and letters are gone from the outer margin of pp. 15–16.

For some account of this remarkable publication, "arraigning [Gov.] Dudley, with unbounded severity," see Palfrey's Hist. of N. England, iv. 304–310. The Dedication is signed, A. H.— probably, for Alexander Holmes, one of the subscribers to the Memorial against Dudley, to the Queen. The absurdity of attributing the authorship of this tract to the Rev. John Higginson of Salem — aged 92 — will be apparent to any one who reads a single page of it. Dr. Palfrey, with more probability, suggests (p. 310) that "Cotton Mather was concerned in the composition:" but "the smartness and pedantry of the style" are as characteristic of Rev. John Wise of Chebacco (who had an old grudge against Dudley) as of Mather.

The title-page is somewhat soiled, and a small hole in it has been mended. The fore and bottom margins are broad, and, with the exceptions noted—which would disappear under the hands of a competent binder—the copy is CLEAN and GOOD.

"Ned Ward" was a graceless scamp. His "Trip to New-England" fairly matches — if it does not surpass — the Rev. Sam. Peters's "History of Connecticut." The latter seems to have taken a hint for one of his "blue-laws" from Ward's story (p. 173) of "a Captain of a ship, who had been a long voyage, happened to meet his wife, and kissed her in the street [of Boston], for which he was fined 10 shillings," — the offences of "open kissing and of fornication being both of a price; and another inhabitant of the town was fin'd ten shillings for kissing his own wife in his garden," and was whipped for refusing to pay the fine. Drake (Hist. of Boston, 515, 516) makes some extracts from this naughty (and very scarce) book.

(The imprint has been cut from the title-page, but the leaf has been neatly mended, so as to conceal the loss.)

The Second Edition was printed in 1655 (see Stevens's "Nuggets," no. 2270). The margins of this copy are good except at the bottom, where a few leaves are close-cropped, one line is cut into, on the last page of the preface, and a few catch-words have been touched.

This volume, which is now RARE, is dedicated to the Governors and Ministers of New-England by J. St. N., "An Adventurer in the first Plantation." The author was rector of Lutterworth, in Leicestershire; a friend of the Rev. Ephraim Huit, who came to N. E. in 1639, and became Mr. Warham's colleague at Windsor (Conn.), to which place Mr. St. N. intended to follow him. He decided, however, to remain in England, where, in 1657, he married a daughter of Anthony Grey, the puritan rector of Burbach, afterwards Earl of Kent. See Palmer's Calamy, ii. 119; Crosby's Hist. of Engl. Baptists, iii. 34; Nichols's Hist. of Leicestershire, iv. 463, 269.

On the inside of the cover of this copy is the autograph, partially erased, of [President] "Ezra Stiles, 1760. E libris Rev. Edwardi Taylor de Westfield."

661 SHEPARD (T.) Certain Select Cases Resolved. With The First Principles of the Oracles of God, pp. (8), 112. n. p. [London], 1695. — Four Necessary Cases of Conscience, of Daily Use. Resolved in a Letter of Mr. T. Shepheard, to a Dear Friend of his; now published by that Friend, with an addition of something of his own . . By R. H. pp. (24), 101, (21), 133, (4). London, n. d. Two in one vol., old binding. 24°

Dedicated by R. H. "To his dear and only Son, R. H. now a Student of . . Grayes Inne." "To the Reader" (10 pp.) contains a brief memoir of Shepard. Shepard's, letter occupies pp. 1–101. It is followed by a Discourse on John 6. 27, by R. H. (pp. 133), with a dedicatory epistle to his "two daughters Margaret and Elizabeth."

The names of the daughters and their ages ("the elder drawing neer to sixteen years," and the younger "now thirteen years,") sufficiently identify R. H., the "dear friend" to whom Shepard's letter was addressed, with RICHARD HARLAKENDEN, Esq., of Earls-Colne in Essex, the elder brother of Roger Harlakenden who came with Mr. Shepard to New England and became a member of his church in Cambridge. Their sister Mabel married John Haynes, governor of Massachusetts and first governor of Connecticut. During Mr. Shepard's ministry at Earls Colne the Harlakenden family had been his warm friends, and had done all in their power to protect him from the persecution which finally drove him from England. Richard Harlakenden's first wife was Alice, daughter of Sir Henry Mildmay, by whom he had the son Richard to whom this volume is dedicated. By his second wife, Mary Denny, he had three daughters, Margaret, Mary, and Elizabeth. Mary died young. The others were about sixteen and thirteen years of age, respectively, in 1651 — which fixes, nearly, the date of publication.

The volume must be VERY RARE. It seems to have escaped the notice of English and American bibliographers, of the editors of Shepard's works, and of all his biographers. It is not named in the catalogues of the Prince, Am. Antiquarian Society's, Harvard College, or Mass. Hist. Society's libraries, nor in any other which the writer of this note has consulted.

In the last named treatise (Subjection to Christ), the address "To the Reader" (9 pp.) signed William Greenhill, Samuel Mather, contains memoirs, by the latter, of Shepard's life and ministry. This work of Mather's has escaped Mr. Sibley, though he quotes Cotton Mather's mention of it in the Magnalia (Harv. Graduates, p. 79). "To the Christian Reader" (3 pp.) is by Jonathan Mitchell.

BOOKS PRINTED IN NEW ENGLAND

(AT CAMBRIDGE AND BOSTON)

1640—1709.

In this section will be found the INCUNABULA of the Anglo-American press. It comprises Mr. Brinley's unrivalled collection of books printed in Massachusetts, from the establishment of the first press in 1639, to the establishment of the first press in Connecticut (the third, in New England) in 1709—from THE WHOLE BOOKE OF PSALMS, Imprinted 1640, by Stephen Day, to the Saybrook Platform, the first book printed in Connecticut,—not including the works of the MATHERS (which are separately catalogued) and the works relating to WITCHCRAFT.

There is not a book named in this section (Nos. 693–929) which may not properly be designated RARE. At least three-fourths of the whole number are VERY RARE; not a few are of EXCESSIVE RARITY, and several are the ONLY KNOWN COPIES, if not UNIQUE.

693 ADAMS (WILLIAM) of Dedham. God's Eye on the Contrite or A Discourse shewing That True Poverty and Contrition of Spirit and Trembling at God's Word is the Infallible and only way for the Obtaining and Retaining of Divine Acceptation. Massachusetts Election Sermon, May 27, 1685, pp. (2), 41, brown levant morocco, sides filleted, g. e. (Bedford).
4° Boston, Richard Pierce for Samuel Sewall, 1685

[Fast] Sermon, at Roxbury, pp. (4), 16, crimson mor. extra (Bedford). 4° Boston, for Job How and John Allen; sold at Mr. Samuel Green's, 1687
EXTREMELY RARE. Not in the Prince, Mass. Historical Society, or Boston Athenæum Catalogues. I. Thomas had "seen no book with John Allen's name in the imprint earlier than 1690" (Hist. of Printing, i. 285), and does not mention Job How, in his list of Boston booksellers. (See Mr. Brinley's note, on guard-leaf.)
The Sermon "was preached on a solemn Fast-Day occasioned by the afflictive Providence of God in sending Worms and Caterpillars, which in some places, as God's great Army, marched in numerous Companies, and devoured all before them,"—hence called Army Worms.

698 ALLIN (JOHN) of Dedham. Animadversions upon the Antisynodalia Americana, a Treatise Printed in Old England, in the Name of the Dissenting Brethren in the Synod held at Boston, 1662, pp. (6), 82, crushed levant green mor. extra, full gilt, paneled sides, inside borders (Bedford).

ALMANACS, PRINTED AT CAMBRIDGE, 1646-1650.

These five Almanacs (Nos. 699–703)—every one of which is believed to be UNIQUE—belonged to the Rev. Samuel Hough (Haugh), Minister of Reading, Mass., whose name appears on the title-page of the Almanac for 1649. They were interleaved by him, and contain many manuscript entries, some of which are of much historical value, and nearly all are of interest to New England antiquaries. They passed into the possession of Judge Sewall (the guardian of Mr. Hough's grand-children), and remained in the Sewall family until they were purchased, not many years ago, by the late Mr. John K. Wiggin of Boston, who sold them to Mr. Brinley. An endorsement on the cover of one of them shows that they were loaned to Mr. John Farmer in 1824, and again in 1833. Mr. Farmer communicated to Mr. Savage some of Mr. Haugh's notes—particularly, the one which records, against June 15, 1648, the first execution in New England for Witchcraft (see Savage's Winthrop, ii. 326, note).

Thomas (Hist. of Printing, i. 234), names Danforth's Almanacks for 1647,–8,–9, and Oakes's "Astronomical Calculations," "1648, about," among books printed by Stephen Day. It is plain, however, that he had not seen all—if any—of them. The Almanac for 1646 (which has lost its title-page), was doubtless by STEPHEN DAY—the first printer at the first Anglo-American press. That of 1647 has the UNIQUE imprint of MATTHEW DAY, the son of Stephen,—a printer not mentioned by Thomas; and the Almanac for 1648 must also have been his work, though his name does not appear in the imprint. (These two almanacs have the title within a border made up of figures representing the phases of the moon.) Matthew Day died in May, 1649. No printer's name appears on the Almanacs for 1649 and 1650. On the latter, the name of Samuel Danforth, as author, is omitted, and in its place stands the Latin line, "Parvum parva decent." This identifies the Almanac with the "little parcel of astronomical calculations, with this apposite verse in the title-page," which, as Cotton Mather states, was published by URIAN OAKES, while a student at Harvard. (Thomas, misled by Mather's title, enters "Astronomical Calculations. By a Youth [Urian Oakes]," as of "1648, about," and says it is not ascertained when or by whom it was printed.) There is no doubt that the Almanacs for 1649 and 1650—which are precisely alike, typographically,—were printed by SAMUEL GREEN; and the former is the FIRST work known to be his,—the Cambridge Platform, printed late in 1649, being the first work having his name (or initials) in the imprint.

Thus, the five tracts comprise specimens of the work of the FIRST THREE PRINTERS in English America; the ONLY known work of one, and the FIRST work of another of the three.

These copies all belonged to the Rev. Henry Flint, of Braintree (brother-in-law of Dr. Leonard Hoar, President of Harvard), and contain occasional notes and memoranda in his autograph — usually disguised in Greek letters. Thus, Nov. 4, 1659, he notes that ιονσον νυεντ ὀμε, and Nov. 6, δινεσον καμε — a new pupil, probably. Against April 13th, same year, "Mr. Shepheard ordained," and, May 5, "Mr. Eliot, 1 Kings 18. 21" — naming the preacher and text of the Election Sermon.

These 18 Almanacs are from the volume of Judge Sewall's "Interleaved Almanacs," once in the possession of Mr. Frederic Kidder, by whom extracts from their printed and manuscript pages were communicated to the N. E. Hist. and Geneal. Register, vols. vii. & viii. As originally bound, the volume began with the (Cambridge) Almanac for 1671. This and the Almanacs for the following years to 1680, inclusive, have been removed by Mr. Brinley and bound separately, in 13 vols. (Nos. 705–708). Henry Phillips is not named in Thomas's list of Boston book-sellers. He was probably the elder brother of the "young and witty" Sam. Phillips, whom John Dunton found doing business at the same stand, or near it, in 1680.

718 ALMANACS. TULLEY (JOHN) An Almanack for the Year of Our Lord, 1687 . . Unto which is annexed a Weather-Glass, whereby the Change of Weather may be foreseen. Boston, S. Green for Benj. Harris.

The first of the very popular series of Almanacs made by John Tulley. They are all — but especially the earlier years — EXTREMELY RARE. This Almanac for 1687 was the first New-England almanac in which the holidays of the Episcopal church were entered in the calendar, and the first that began the year with the month of January. Opposite to Jan. 30, is the entry, "King Charles murdered."

On the last page is an "Epitaph upon John Tulley," and advertisements of two books by Increase and Cotton Mather. The Preface was probably written by Cotton Mather.

"[Dec.] 21. 5 persons were admitted fellowship with ye chh. in N. Haven, whereof Mr. Davenport was one. The evening after, two Dracones Volantes of unusual dimentions were seen. Att ye extinguishing of one, a nois like a great gun was heard. Both light & nois were affrighting to many."

8° Boston, B. Green & J. Allen.

JUDGE SEWALL'S COPIES, with his MANUSCRIPT ENTRIES, on the wrappers and margins. The Almanac for 1700 was Clough's FIRST. His last was published, after his death, in 1708. In 1705 (the year that N. Whittemore's first Almanac was published), the imprint has "B. Green for Benj. Eliot," and in 1706 and 1707, "B. Green for Benj. Eliot and Nich. Boone."

Mr. Brinley's set — comprising seven of the nine published in Clough's name — is more nearly complete than any other known. Its interest, as well as its intrinsic value, is much enhanced by Sewall's manuscript memoranda.

On p. 208, he gives good reasons for believing "that Cotton Mather was intimately connected with the preparation of this tract," which may have been written by the Rev. Then may we Pray, have Mercy LORD on us,

Mr. Davenport wrote two Essays of which the second only was printed. Hence the title, "Another Essay." In the "Apologetical Preface" (A4) Increase Mather refers to "the first Essay of this Reverend Author, in manuscript."

753 DAVENPORT (JOHN) Gods Call to His People To Turn unto Him; Together with His Promise to Turn unto them. Opened and Applied in II. Sermons, at two Publick Fasting-dayes, pp. 27, dk. blue levant morocco, inside borders, g. e. (Bedford), large, clean, and fine copy. 4° Cambridge, S. G. and M. J. for John Usher, 1669

SUPERLATIVELY RARE.

754 A | DECLARATION OF FORMER | Passages and Proceedings betwixt the English | and the Narrowgansets, with their confederates, Wherin | the grounds and iustice of the ensuing warre are opened | and cleared. | Published, by order of the Commissioners for the united Colonies: | At Boston the 11 of the sixth month | 1645. pp. 7, best levant red morocco, paneled sides, rich inside borders (W. Pratt). 4° n. p., n. d. [Cambridge, STEPHEN DAYE, 1645]

Probably UNIQUE. This Declaration of War against the Narragansets is subscribed by "Jo: Winthrop President, In the name of all the Commissioners," &c. Hutchinson, who printed it, in his Collection of Papers (138–146) from a manuscript copy, had "never met with it in print." It was again printed, from the MSS. Records of the Commissioners, (with many errors) in Hazard's Collection, ii. 45–48. The following entry, in an "Account of Expenses layd out for the County," Aug. 1645 to Oct. 1646 (Mass. Archives, xxx. doc. 9), shows the number of copies printed: "First, for y^e^ printing of five hundred Declarations, 4l. 00. 00." Of the five hundred, Mr. Brinley's is the ONLY KNOWN COPY. It is one of the EARLIEST productions of the Cambridge press; the THIRD, in order of time, of which any copy is extant — preceded only by the Bay Psalm Book and the list of Theses at the Commencement of the (Harvard) College, in 1643, of which the single known copy (imperfect) is in the Library of the Mass. Historical Society.

755 DENISON (DANIEL) Irenicon, or a Salve For New-England's Sore, pp. (8), 177–218, nice copy. 8° [Boston, S. Green,] 1684

Originally bound with Hubbard's Discourse on the Death of Major-General Daniel Denison. It is EXCESSIVELY RARE. "New England's Sore," in the diagnosis of Major Denison, was the contention between "Independents or Congregational men, and those that are called by them Presbyterians." New England had suffered by "the Antinomians," "the Gortonians, Muggletonians, and other Elves and Hobgoblins,"—and now, "by our dear Friends, Presbyterians, Semi-Presbyterians, Apostates on the one side, Independents, Separatists, Morellians, Semi-Anabaptists, and less offensively, Anastates on single other side," . . "Brother sharpening his Sword against Brother."

756 [DOD (Rev. JOHN)] OLD MR. DOD'S SAYINGS; or, A Posie gathered out of Mr. Dod's Garden. Collected by R. T., pp. 13, brown levant morocco, paneled sides, g. e. (Bedford).

RARE. Not in I. Thomas's list of books printed by Johnson.

757 DOOLITTLE (T.) Earthquakes Explained and Practically Improved: Occasioned by the late Earthquake on Sept. 8. 1692. in London, many other parts in England, and beyond Sea, pp. (8), 1–56, imperfect, old binding. Repr. Boston, B. Harris, 1693

On the back of title: "IMPRIMATUR, Increase Mather. Boston, New-England, August 25. 1693." This copy belonged to John Tully, of Saybrook (the Almanac-maker), and has his autograph on the title page and inside of cover.

758 DUMMER (JEREMY) A. L. M. & Philosoph. Doct. A Discourse on the Holiness of the Sabbath-Day. Sermon at Boston, Oct. 29, 1704. (With prefatory address to the Reader, by Increase Mather.) pp. (8), 54, corners cut, name on title. 8° Boston, B. Green, 1704

sm. 8° Cambridge, Printed by Marmaduke Johnson, 1665

"Although a few copies printed, yet it is NOT PUBLISHED."— Preface.

"This copy is the one referred to by Dr. Francis, in his Life of J. Eliot, in Sparks' American Biography."— G. B. It formerly belonged to the Rev. Dr. Thaddeus Mason Harris of Dorchester, Mass., who has left this note, on a guard leaf: "As this little book was not published, and 'but very few copies printed,' it has become so scarce that this may be considered the only copy. The like may be said of the tract which contains 'The Dying Speeches of some Indians.'" (See No. 765.)

The only other known copy of this book was in the library of Mr. Menzies, and was then believed by Mr. Sabin to be UNIQUE. See the Menzies Catalogue, no. 666. It is, doubtless, "THE FIRST PRIVATELY PRINTED AMERICAN BOOK."

761 ELIOT (JOHN) The Harmony of the Gospels, in the Holy History of the Humiliation and Sufferings of Jesus Christ, from his Incarnation to his Death and Burial, pp. (4), 131, red levant morocco extra, elegantly paneled sides, g. e. (Bedford).

4° Boston, John Foster, 1678

Fine clean copy, with good margins, of this VERY RARE book.

762 ELIOT (JOHN) The Harmony of the Gospels. Another copy.

4° Boston, John Foster, 1678

A LARGE and VERY FINE copy, which well deserves its splendid binding, in Mr. Bedford's best style, russia-red levant morocco, the sides richly gilt, in exquisite designs, in the English Harleian style, inside borders, g. e. In a note which accompanied this volume, Mr. Bedford writes: "I have bestowed my utmost care on this book, to make it a perfect specimen of elegant Early English binding. It has been much admired here, by all who have seen it."

763 ELIOT (JOHN) The Harmony of the Gospels. Another copy, blue levant morocco extra, g. e. (Bedford), A SPLENDID COPY, UNCUT.

The lower part of the title-leaf and the lower inside corner of the following leaf have been skllfully mended, and a very few words restored in facsimile.

764 ELIOT (JOHN) A Brief Answer To a Small Book written by John Norcot against Infant-Baptisme. This Answer is written by John Eliot for the sake of some of the Flock of Jesus Christ who are ready to be staggered in point of Infant-Baptisme by reading his Book, pp. (2), 27, (1), str.-grained olive morocco, back full gilt, sides filleted, corners ornamented, Roger Payne's style, (Bedford), EXTREMELY RARE. 8° Boston, John Foster, 1699

765 ELIOT (JOHN) The Dying Speeches of several Indians.

8° n. p., n. d., [Cambridge, 168–]

Title, verso blank (2 pp.), Preface by John Eliot, 1 p., verso blank; Dying Speeches, pp. 2–12; 1 p. blank. The Title is printed lengthwise of the first page (from top to bottom). In his prefatory note, Eliot says: "These things are Printed not so much for Publishment, as to save charge for writeing out of Copyes for those that did desiere them." This is the ONLY KNOWN COPY. It is in perfect condition, clean and bright, elegantly bound (by F. Bedford) in dark-blue levant morocco, full gilt back, paneled sides, with center and corner ornaments, and rich inside borders.

The Am. Antiquarian Society's Catalogue gives the title under the year 1663. This is considerably too early. The tract contains several references to matters that occurred after the termination of the Indian War, in 1677. It probably was printed at about the same time with the second edition of the Indian Bible, between 1680 and 1683, or a little later.

766 FITCH (JAMES) Pastor of the Church at Norwich [Conn.] Peace, the End of the Perfect and Upright . . A Sermon, upon the Death of . . Mrs. ANNE MASON, sometime Wife to Major Mason, who not long after finished his Course and is now at rest, red morocco extra, top gilt (Bedford), UNCUT. 4° Cambridge, Samuel Green, 1672

Fine copy of this EXTREMELY RARE Sermon. I know of but one other copy — which is in the Am. Antiquarian Society's library. "Major Mason" is, of course, the famous Major John, the commander in the Pequot War, — whose daughter Priscilla was the wife of Mr. Fitch.

767 FITCH (JAMES) An Holy Connexion, Or a true Agreement Between Jehovahs being a Wall of Fire to his People, and the Glory in the midst thereof, pp. (4), 20, red morocco, top gilt, UNCUT. 4° Cambridge, Samuel Green, 1674

The FIRST CONNECTICUT ELECTION SERMON printed. The prefatory Address to the Christian Reader is subscribed by the Rev. John Whiting and Rev. Joseph Haines. EXTREMELY RARE.

768 FITCH (JAMES) The First Pinciples (sic) of the Doctrine of Christ: Together with stronger Meat for them that are skil'd in the Word of Righteousness. Or . . . the Body of Divinity, briefly and methodically handled by way of Question and Answer. Published . . for the use of the Church in Norwich, pp. (8), 76, (1), brown morocco elegant, sides paneled, with center ornament, g. e. (Bedford), autographs of Increase Mather and Mather Byles. 8° Boston, John Foster, 1679

Introduction "to the Reader" by Increase Mather (6 pp.). This was Increase Mather's copy, and has his autograph in two places.

769 FITCH (JAMES) An Explanation of the Solemn Advice, Recommended by the Council in Connecticut Colony, to the Inhabitants, in that Jurisdiction, Respecting the Reformation of those Evils, which have been the Procuring-Cause of the late Judgments. — [Also,] The Covenant which was Solemnly Renewed by the Church in Norwich, March 22, 1675. [And, with separate title-page,] A Brief Discourse Proving that the First Day of the Week is the Christian Sabbath, [against] the Anti-Christian Sabbatarians of late risen up in Connecticut Colony. At the end is a catalogue (4 pp.) of "Books sold by Benj. Eliot, at his Shop under the West-End of the Town-house, in Boston."

771 FLAVEL (JOHN) Husbandry Spiritualized: or, the Heavenly Use of Earthly Things. 10th edition. pp. (20), 284, old binding. 8° Boston, repr. J. Allen, 1709

772 Further Quæries Upon the Present State of the New-English Affairs. [Signed S. E.] pp. 11, red morocco extra, g. e. (Pratt). sm. 4° n. t. p. n. p. n. d. [Boston or Cambridge, 1690]

A prefatory note to Mr. Sabin's reprint of this EXTREMELY RARE tract describes it as "printed in London, during the latter part of 1689 or the beginning of 1690." The internal evidence that it was printed either at Boston or Cambridge, between February and May, 1690, seems conclusive. The sack of Schenectady by the French and Indians (Feb. 8, 1690) is alluded to, p. 11. The fact that all the depositions printed on pages 12–14 are made by Salem men, and the suggestion, in the last paragraph, that it "would be convenient for Salem, the oldest town in the Colony," to take the lead" in establishing a provisional government under the old Charter, may perhaps furnish a clue to the authorship.

773 GOSPEL ORDER REVIVED, Being an Answer to a Book lately set forth by the Reverend Mr. Increase Mather, President of Harvard Colledge, &c., Entituled The Order of the Gospel, &c. . . By sundry Ministers of the Gospel in New-England, 6 prelim. leaves, pp. 40, half dk. blue levant mor. extra, top gilt, (Bedford), UNCUT.

4° n. p. [NEW YORK, WILLIAM BRADFORD,] 1700

On the verso of a leaf preceding the Title is the ADVERTISEMENT: "The Reader is desired to take Notice that the Press in Boston is so much under the aw of the Reverend Author, whom we answer, and his Friends, that we could not obtain of the Printer there to print the following Sheets, which is the only true Reason why we have sent the Copy so far for its Impression, and where it was printed with some Difficulty." See Thomas's History of Printing (1st ed.), ii. 90, 458, and the Menzies Catalogue, no. 817. The authorship of this pamphlet has been attributed to the Rev. Messrs. John Woodbridge, Benj. Colman, and Simon Bradstreet (Sibley's Harvard Graduates, 455). EXCESSIVELY RARE, and, in such condition, perhaps UNIQUE.

[Though this book was not "printed in New England," yet considering its authorship, its relation to Mather's "Order of the Gospel" (see No. 1010), and to the anonymous "Collection of some of the Offensive Matter" &c. (No. 1086), and its connection with the history of the Boston press, it seems proper to place it here.]

774 GREEN (BARTHOLOMEW) The Printers Advertisement (Dec. 21, 1700), concerning "A late pamphlet, entituled, Gospel Order Revived, printed at New York," with Depositions, contra, of Thomas Brattle, Zechariah Tuttle, and John Mico, and Depositions of Green and others, in reply, pp. 10, polished calf extra (Bedford), UNCUT. 4° Boston, 1701

No title-page. First leaf blank. VERY RARE. See Thomas's Hist. of Printing (1st ed.), ii. 90, 458, and Haven's Catalogue, p. 38.

The Happiness of a People In the Wisdome of their Rulers Directing and in the Obedience of their Brethren Attending Unto what Israel ougho (sic) to do: [Election] Sermon, at Boston, May. 3d. 1676. pp. (8), 63, VERY LARGE and FINE copy, olive morocco, back full gilt, sides filleted, with corner ornaments, g. e. (Bedford). 4° Boston, John Foster, 1676

The greater part of the edition of this Sermon seems to have been bound up with copies of the author's "Narrative of the Troubles with the Indians." Separate copies are EXTREMELY RARE. It has possessed a high bibliographical interest, having been regarded, on the authority of Thomas, as THE FIRST BOOK PRINTED IN BOSTON. The present Catalogue, however, compels us to assign precedence to two tracts by Increase Mather (Nos. 1045 and 1040), printed in 1675, and to the (Boston) Almanac for 1676 (see No. 707).

780 HUBBARD (WM.) A Narrative of the Troubles with the Indians, in New-England, from the first planting thereof in the year 1607. to this present year 1677. (A to verso of N 2); Catechism, 1 leaf; 1 blank leaf. The autograph of Bishop White Kennett is at the foot of the English title-page.

Mr. B. Quaritch, from whom Mr. Brinley purchased this copy, wrote, in 1869, "I believe it must be the finest copy in the world." Certainly, in completeness, size, and condition, it leaves nothing to be desired. It has not only the Dedication, which was inserted in very few (probably not more than twenty-five) copies, but it has both the English and the Indian titles. The leaf measures 7⅜ by 5⅝ inches. The binding is one of Mr. F. BEDFORD'S masterpieces; in best levant grosgrained brown morocco, sides double paneled, blind and gold, with centre ornaments; gilt edges; enclosed in a Solander case of blue morocco, lettered.

It was bought by Mr. B. Quaritch, from the Library of L. H. Petit, Esq., in 1869, and the same year, was added to Mr. Brinley's collection. The name of H. [Sir Henry?] Hobart is written on the title-page. It is absolutely complete, and in the best condition, throughout. The leaf measures $7\frac{7}{16}$ by $5\frac{3}{4}$ inches.

Robert Boyle, Governor, and to the Company for the Propagation of the Gospel, &c. 1 leaf (verso blank); Old Test., A to Ppppp, in fours; names of the Books, 1 leaf (recto blank); N. Test. From the Library of the late Marquis of Hastings, Donnington Park, Leicestershire. In the original calf binding, well preserved, back gilt, lettered "SS. BIBLIA INDICA NOVÆ ANGLIÆ." The leaf measures $7\frac{7}{16}$ by $5\frac{7}{8}$ inches. In all respects a REMARKABLY FINE copy, to which the Dedication to Boyle imparts EXTRAORDINARY RARITY. Only three copies containing this Dedication are known, and two of these are in public libraries.

ELIOT'S BIBLE. SECOND EDITION.

GRINDAL RAWSON'S COPY.

790 — Mamusse Wunnutupanatamwe Up-Biblum God . . Ne quoshkinnumuk nashpe . . John Eliot. Nahohtôeu ontchetôe Printeuoomuk. 4° Cambridge, Samuel Green, 1685, 1680

A NOBLE COPY, which is probably rendered UNIQUE by a happy blunder of the original binder. It wants the "Catechism" (a single leaf) at the end; but it has the General Title, in duplicate, one at the beginning of the volume, and the other at the end of the Old Testament. Mr. Henry Stevens, of whom this copy was purchased by Mr. Brinley in 1871, explains the presence of the second title, in this way: "Sheet Ppppp, the end of the Old Testament, is bound up as originally printed; that is, Ppppp 1 is the end of the O. T., ending on the reverse; Ppppp 2 is a blank leaf; Ppppp 3 is the title to the Old and New Testament, reverse blank; and Ppppp 4 is blank on the recto, and has the List of the Books on the verso. The cut-out of the two middle leaves of this sheet, then makes the blank leaf and the title at the front of the book. In this copy, these two leaves are in duplicate, and as clean and fresh as they were in 1685." With these exceptions (and the absence of the Dedication), the collation is the same as for No. 789.

The leaf measures $7\frac{7}{8}$ inches tall by very nearly 6 inches wide. In the upper corner of the (first) title is the autograph of "Jo. Baily. Jan. 1. [16]$8\frac{6}{7}$ N. E." (the Rev. John Baily, minister of Watertown, and assistant minister of the First Church, Boston, 1693–97). On the blank leaf preceding the title, is the fine autograph of "Grindall Rawson | His Indian Bible | Given him By his Father | 1712." The writer, minister of Mendon, Mass., 1680–1715, was much engaged in the Indian work, and was able to preach to the Indians in their own language. He translated for them Cotton's Milk for Babes (No. 783) and the Confession of Faith of 1680 (No. 784). He was a son of Secretary Edward Rawson, who gave him this Indian Bible.

The binding, executed under Mr. Stevens's direction, is in the best style, in blue grosgrain levant morocco, sides filleted and paneled, blind and gold, with centre ornaments, the back paneled, broad inside borders of elegant design, on a lining of red levant morocco; enclosed in a dark green morocco box, lined with white velvet, gilt and lettered.

This seems to be the edition from which that of 1720 was reprinted. The two agree, page for page, and line for line nearly, but there is a difference in the type. As this contains Rawson's translation of Cotton's "Milk for Babes," it was probably printed after or not long before 1691. It may be of the edition of 1687, mentioned in Isaiah Thomas's list of books printed by Samuel Green (Hist. of Printing, I. 263.) It is, so far as is known, UNIQUE.

841 [OXENBRIDGE (JOHN)] A Quickening Word for the hastening a Sluggish Soul to a seasonable Answer to The Divine Call. Published by a poor Sinner that found it such to him. Being the last Sermon Preached in the First Church of Boston Upon Isaiah 55. 6. By the Pastor there, on the 24th of the fifth Month, 1670. pp. 21, str.-grained blue morocco, full gilt, Roger Payne's style, (Bedford). 8° Cambridge, S. G. and M. J., 1670

SUPERLATIVELY RARE, if not UNIQUE. Cotton Mather (Magnalia, bk. III, pt. iv, c. 6) says — with his habitual inexactness — that Mr. Oxenbridge "published a Sermon about Seasonable seeking of God." It is evident that Eliot (Biogr. Dictionary), Allen, Sprague (Congr. Annals, i, 171), Emerson (in Hist. of First Church), and others have taken the fact and the title from Mather, without having seen the Sermon itself. The title has not been found in any published catalogue (except the Am. Antiq. Society's Catalogue of Ante-Revolutionary Publications, to which it was communicated by Mr. Brinley), and the writer has not seen or heard of any second copy. Mr. Brinley had entered it as anonymous, not having identified it with Mather's "Sermon about Seasonable Seeking." — T.

844 [PROPOSITIONS concerning the Subject of Baptism and Consociation of Churches, Collected and Confirmed out of the Word of God, by a Synod of Elders and Messengers of the Churches . . . Assembled at Boston, . . . In the Year 1662,] pp. 1–28, wants title, preface, and last two leaves (pp. 29–32) of "The Answer of the Elders." 4° [Cambridge, S. G. for Hezekiah Usher at Boston, 1662]

An imperfect copy of the EXTREMELY RARE original edition of the result of the Synod of 1662. For the reprint, with the "Answer of the Dissenting Brethren" annexed, see the following number.

845 PROPOSITIONS concerning the Subject of Baptism and Consociation of Churches; collected and confirmed out of the Word of God, by a SYNOD OF ELDERS and MESSENGERS of the Churches in Massachusets-Colony, . assembled at Boston according to the Appointment of the Honoured General Court, In the Year 1662. . . Whereunto is anext the ANSWER of the DISSENTING BRETHREN, &c., best blue levant morocco extra, g. e. (Bedford).

4° n. p. [London], Printed in the Year, 1662

Title, 1 leaf; The Preface to the Christian Reader, 12 pp.; The Answer of the Elders &c., pp. 1–18; Anti Synodalia Scripta Americana, or a Proposal of the Judgment of the Dissenting Messengers, &c. [by President Charles Chauncy,] pp. 1–38.

This is the English reprint of the "Propositions" with the addition of Chauncy's Anti-Synodalia, separately paged, but without a special title-page. Thomas (Hist. of Printing, I. 255) puts this edition of the Anti-Synodalia ("4to. 38 pages," 1662) in the list of books printed at Cambridge by Samuel Green, and says it "was reprinted in London." It is nearly certain that no American edition had been printed when, in February, 1664, the Rev. John Allin published his "Animadversions upon the Anti-Synodalia Americana, a Treatise printed in Old England." In his preface Mr. Allin mentions the Antisynodalia which "came to our hands" and "another Essay [John Davenport's] of the same nature [which] was here published." The type of the n. p. volume of 1662 differs from that of the Cambridge edition of the "Propositions" (see No. 844) and is unlike any that Green is known to have used in Cambridge. The Massachusetts edition has the full imprint: "Cambridge: Printed by S. G. for Hezekiah Usher at Boston in New-England. 1662."

This copy has, at the foot of the title-page, the autograph inscription of "John Cotton his booke, given him by his Brother Mr. Increase Mather."

846 PROPOSITIONS concerning the Subject of Baptism etc. . . . Whereunto is anext the ANSWER of the Dissenting Brethren, &c. Another copy, brown levant mor., gilt, rich inside borders, g. e. (Bedford).

THE BAY PSALM BOOK.

THE FIRST BOOK PRINTED IN THE ANGLO-AMERICAN COLONIES.

847 The | Whole | Booke of Psalmes | Faithfully | Translated into English | Metre. | Whereunto is prefixed a discourse de-|claring not only the lawfullnes, but also | the necessity of the heavenly Ordinance | of singing Scripture Psalmes in | the Churches of | God. | 8° [Cambridge, Stephen Daye,] Imprinted 1640

A BEAUTIFUL and ABSOLUTELY PERFECT copy; having the additional page of "Faults escaped in printing." The binding — one of Mr. F. BEDFORD'S master-pieces — is in dark brown crushed levant morocco, the sides studded with gold stars, within broad gilt borders, with corner and center ornaments; and the volume is enclosed in a Solander case of blue, straight-grained morocco, lettered.

For a description and collation, see Thomas's Hist. of Printing, i. 231, 232, and the Prince Library Catalogue.

To offer any remarks on the RARITY or the IMPORTANCE of this precious volume would be sheer impertinence. The acquisition of a copy of the original edition of the Bay Psalm Book must always be the crowning triumph to which every American collector aspires,—while the chances of acquisition are constantly diminishing. It is by no means probable that another copy will be offered for competition within the next quarter of a century, at least.

848 BAY PSALM BOOK. A Literal Reprint of the Bay Psalm Book, being the Earliest New England Version of the Psalms and the First Book Printed in America. Elegantly bound (by BEDFORD) in blue straight-grained morocco extra, back and corners richly gilt, (Roger Payne's style,) g. e., and enclosed in a brown morocco Solander case, lined with velvet, lettered on back: "THE BAY PSALM BOOK. 2nd ED. — CAMBRIDGE. 1647."

"A reprint, without additions, of the first edition (in a smaller size) with some changes of spelling. . . Mr. Brinley's copy with the date of 1647, wherever printed, may fairly be regarded as the second edition, and, so far as known, is UNIQUE . . The changes of spelling would, perhaps, be more likely to occur if the book was printed in England, which may have been the case, though some experts there think otherwise." (Haven's Catalogue of Ante-Revolutionary Publications.)

12° Cambridge, | Printed for Hezekiah Usher, of Bostoo (sic), n. d.

EXTREMELY RARE. The New England version (Bay Psalm Book), as revised and improved by Dunster and Lyon, in 1650. Mr. Thomas believed this to be the third edition of the revision, and the fifth including all from 1640. "The printing," he observes, "is executed by a good workman, and is the best that I have seen from the Cambridge press. I conclude, therefore, it could not be printed by Green before the arrival of Marmaduke Johnson in 1660; I have no doubt it was printed under Johnson's care; and, probably, soon after the Indian Bible came from the press in 1663." See his long note, in History of Printing, i. 257–8; and compare a note in Mr. Haven's (Am. Antiq. Society's) Catalogue, under the year 1665, suggesting that "it is doubtful whether the printing was done in this country or in England . . Mr. Lenox thinks this may be the fifth edition, and the first that was printed in two columns."

For an account of this "EXTREMELY RARE and valuable, if not UNIQUE tract," see Dr. Geo. H. Moore's Notes on Slavery in Massachusetts, pp. 88 and 251. Judge Sewall's "printed sheet" on "The Selling of Joseph" was reprinted by Dr. Moore (pp. 83–87) and in the Proceedings of the Mass. Hist. Society, 1863–4, pp. 161–5.

854 SALTONSTALL (GURDON) of New London. A Sermon preached before the General Assembly . . of Connecticut, . Green and J. Allen*, 1697

VERY RARE. Mr. Saltonstall, settled as the minister of New London in 1691, was elected governor of Connecticut in 1707, and continued in office till his death, 1724.

855 S[COTTOW] (J[OSHUA]) The Rise, Spring and Foundation of the Anabaptists, or Re-Baptized of our Time. 857 Severals relating to the | FUND | Printed for divers Reasons, as may appear. Imperfect, ends with p. 8, n. t. p., forel, lettered.
4° [Boston, Samuel Green, 1682]

Probably UNIQUE, and of EXTRAORDINARY INTEREST, imperfect as it is. At the top of the first page is written, in the hand of Thomas Prince: "By page 6, was written in 1681. Mr. B. Green sen'r says this was printed at Boston by his bro. Samuel's letter [i. e. types]." On the page referred to, the author speaks of what he did, "having by accident, some respite time this year 1681," in September, and on p. 7, mentions the result "in 6 months" — which brings the date of publication as late as March, 1681–2. It contains information, not elsewhere to be found, respecting the origin and history of the project for a Land Bank of Credit, and the introduction of Paper Money. (See No. 726.)

858 SEWALL (SAMUEL) Phænomena quædam Apocalyptica ad Aspectum NOVI ORBIS configurata. Or, some few Lines towards a description of the New Heaven, as it makes to those who stand upon the New Earth. By Samuel Sewall, sometime Fellow of Harvard Colledge at Cambridge, French grosgr. blue morocco extra, full gilt, inside borders (Bedford).
4 Boston, Barth. Green and John Allen, 1697

Title; a dedicatory epistle to Sir William Ashhurst, 2 pp.; another dedicatory address to Governor Stoughton, 3 pp.; Psalm 139, 7–10 (in metre), 1 p.; Some Few Lines, &c., pp. 60.
The FIRST EDITION of Sewall's very curious and — in spite of its title — amusing book, is EXTREMELY RARE. The learned and pious author labors "to expose the antick fancy of America's being Hell" — the "Sedem Inferorum" to which Christ descended, — or even the Apocalyptic Gog and Magog; but he honestly confesses (p. 40) that "there is so much Confusion in the discourses upon this subject, that a man cannot tell when he is in Heaven and when he is in Hell," and that "so near an approach to, so compleat a resemblance of Hell, was not to be found in rerum natura" as in America.

859 SEWALL (SAMUEL) Phænomena quædam Apocalyptica ad Aspectum NOVI ORBIS configurata. Another copy; autograph of Thomas Prince, 1708, front margins too close and unevenly cut, but top and bottom uncut. 4° Boston, Barth. Green and John Allen, 1697

860 SEWALL (SAMUEL) Phænomena quædam Apocalyptica Ad Aspectum Novi Orbis configurata. Or some few Lines towards a description of the New Heaven As It makes to those who stand upon the New Earth. . The Second Edition, pp. (8), 64. [To which is appended, separately paged,] The Fountain Opened, etc. By Samuel Willard. The Third Edition (pp. 1–15); and Appendix (pp. 16–24). Large and fine copy, nearly uncut. Boston, Barth. Green, 1727. — An Answer to Some Cases of Conscience Respecting the Country. By Solomon Stoddard, uncut. pp. 15, n. t. p. Boston, B. Green, 1722. — Verses, (by S. Sewall?) "Wednesday, January 1, 1701. A little before Break-a-day, at Boston," n. p., n. d., 1 p. Four in one vol., half mor., neat. 4° Boston, v. y.

Almost as RARE as the earlier edition. See the Menzies Catalogue, no. 1794. Judge Sewall has appended to his own work, Willard's Sermon on "the National Conversion of the Jews," first published in 1700, but already "for some time out of print." In the accompanying tract, the Rev. Solomon Stoddard closes his examination of "Cases of Conscience," touching the "wearing of long Hair," "thoughts concerning Periwigs," &c., with the suggestion that "There be many other Practices that are plainly contrary to the Light of Nature. HOOPED Petticoats have something of Nakedness; Mixt Dances are Incentives to Lust; Compotations in Private Houses, is a Drunken Practice."

861 SEWALL (SAMUEL) Phænomena quædam Apocalyptica, etc. The Second Edition. With The Fountain Opened, etc., by S. Willard, pp. 64, 24, very LARGE copy, nearly uncut. 4° Boston, B. Green, 1727

Neither this nor the following work of Mr. Whiting has been found in any library catalogue that has been consulted. Cotton Mather (Magnalia, b. 3, pt. 2, ch. 28) gives some account of both these books, and the Rev. Messrs. Wilson and Mitchell, in their preface, assure us that "he that shall take time to pause upon what he reads (where great truths are but in few words hinted at) will find such truths concisely delivered, to be like marrow and fatness, whereof a little does go far, and feed much."

The two in one volume, old calf.

Early editions of Wigglesworth's famous poems are of the VERY HIGHEST RARITY. "Meat out of the Eater" was first published in 1670 (see No. 882, note), but no copy of the first, second, or third edition appears in any American catalogue. Mr. J. W. Dean, in his memoir of Wigglesworth (N. E. Hist. & Geneal. Reg., xvii. 145) says that "the earliest edition of which we have been able to obtain any information is the 4th;" and of this, only one copy, besides Mr. Brinley's, is known to the writer. "The Day of Doom" was first printed in 1662. "It is not known that a copy of either of the first three editions is extant" (Sibley, Harv. Graduates, 284). Neither Mr. J. W. Dean nor Mr. Haven (Cat. of Ante-Revol. Publications) could find a copy of any American edition earlier than the sixth, of 1715. "This work," says Mr. Sibley, "represented the theology of the day, and for a century, with the exception perhaps of the Bible, was more popular throughout New England than any other that can be named."

Copies of subsequent editions (1715, –51, 1811, –28, –67; and "Meat out of the Eater," 1770,) will be found in the Second Part of this Catalogue, under the head of AMERICAN POETRY.

VERY LARGE and FINE copy of the only published work of the First Pastor of Boston. It is EXCESSIVELY RARE. This sermon "was preached on occasion of the Anabaptists first setting up in opposition to the Churches of Christ,"—says Increase Mather (On Infant Baptism, 1680, p. 277). A Baptist church had been organized, in Charlestown, May 28, 1665. Five of their members had been disfranchised by the General Court (Oct. 11th), a few weeks before this Lecture was preached. Mr. Wilson, says Cotton Mather, "had the Zeal of a Pharisee, I had almost said of a Seraphim, in testifying against every thing that he thought offensive to God," — and, "in his sight," adds Mr. Frothingham, "among things most offensive was Anabaptists and Quakers." (Hist. of Charlestown, p. 69.)

THE WORKS OF THE MATHERS.

(1) RICHARD, of Dorchester. (2) INCREASE, of Boston, son of Richard. (3) COTTON, of Boston, son of Increase.

The others follow in the alphabetical order of their Christian names: (4) AZARIAH, of Saybrook, son of Samuel (of Windsor). (5) ELEAZER, of Northampton, son of Richard. (6) MOSES, of Middlesex, Conn., gr. gr. grandson of Richard. (7) NATHANAEL, of Dublin and London, son of Richard. (8) NATHANAEL, of Boston, son of Increase. (9) SAMUEL, of Dublin, son of Richard. The works of INCREASE and COTTON Mather (Nos. 939–1282) are arranged in the alphabetical order of their titles: all the others, in the order of time of publication.

An obelisk (†) prefixed to a title indicates that the work was published anonymously.

In giving the sizes, the signatures have been the guide. Signatures in eights (or half-sheets, in fours) are marked 8°; in sixes or twelves, 12°.

Where no place of publication is named, it will be understood that the book was printed in Boston, uhless specially marked as of no place (n. p.)

To the Christian Reader, by John Cotton and John Wilson, 1 p. A FINE COPY, with good margins, of this EXCEEDINGLY RARE book; the FIRST WORK of Richard Mather's PRINTED IN NEW ENGLAND (except a Catechism, of which no copy is extant).

935 MATHER (RICHARD) A Farewell Exhortation to the Church and People of Dorchester in New-England, pp. (4), 27, dk. red morocco extra, g. e. (Pratt). 4° Cambridge, Samuel Green, 1657

SUPERLATIVELY RARE. This copy has suffered somewhat, at the hands of a former binder. The outer margin of pp. 3, 4, and the bottom margins throughout have been cropped too close, taking off one line from pp. 17–21, and three or four words from p. 26. The margins have been skilfully restored, and the few lost words can easily be supplied in facsimile.

936 — † A Defence of the Answer and Arguments of the Synod met at Boston in the year 1662, against the Reply made thereto by the Reverend John Davenport. . . Together with AN ANSWER [by the Rev. Jonathan Mitchell] to the Apologetical Preface set before that Essay. By some of the Elders who were members of that Synod, pp. (2), 46, 102. Elegantly bound in dk. blue grosgrain levant morocco, gilt back and paneled sides (Bedford). 4° Cambridge,

On the margin of the title-page, is written, in the Autograph of Richard Mather: "For the Rever[d] M[r] Shepard;" also, "Thomas Shepard's Booke, y[e] gift of y[e] Rev[d]. Author [Mr. Richard] Mather, Teacher of the Church in Dorchester," and "Ben. Wadsworth's, 1717." There are several marginal notes (in the "Answer") by Mr. Shepard—who has also written, at the beginning of each part of the work, the name of the author. RARE.

937 — Two MANUSCRIPT Sermons: (1) "2 Cor: 5: 1. At Goodwife Wilkens funerall, Dec[r]. 6th, 164[8?]" 7 pp.— (2) "Psal. 90: 12. At Mr. Toogoods funerall, Dec[r]. 12: 1653." 4 pp. (wants one page.)

Eleven neatly written pages. Good autographs of Richard Mather are EXTREMELY RARE. Additional interest is given to these choice specimens by their mention of two names not found in the records of Dorchester or in Savage's Genealogical Dictionary. "Goodwife Wilkens" may have been the wife or the mother of Bray Wilkins, of Dorchester and Lynn: but who was the "Mr. Toogood" who died in 1653?

938 — MANUSCRIPT SERMON, from Heb. 13. 17, preached "At an Ordina*tion* at Marleborough. Apr: 7: 1659." 16 pages, 8°

A most desirable AUTOGRAPH, but of higher interest as an unpublished discourse of Richard Mather, on the duty of obedience and submission of church-members, to their ministers and officers. ("Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves," etc.)

"He wrote a treatise to prove that whatever priviledge and liberty may belong to the fraternity, the rule of the church belongs only to its Presbytery."—Magnalia.

The occasion and the date of this Sermon deserve notice. The town of Marlborough was not incorporated until May, 1660, and the Rev. William Brinsmead (a native of Dorchester, and doubtless a member of Mather's church) is said to have been the first minister, but he was not installed until October 3, 1666. That he (or any other) minister was ordained at Marlborough as early as April, 1659, seems to have been unknown even to Mr. Hudson, the local historian.

939 MATHER (INCREASE) Advice to the Children of Godly Ancestors. Given July 9. 1721. And taken in Short-Hand, by one of the Hearers, pp. 16, [In A Course of Sermons on Early Piety, by the Eight Ministers who carry on the Thursday Lecture in Boston.] clean and sound, in the original binding. 12° S. Kneeland, 1721

The Preface to this volume is also by I. Mather. The first sermon is by Cotton Mather: "What the Pious Parent wishes for." The sermons are separately paged. An alphabetical arrangement reverses, in this instance, the order of time, giving the first place, in the catalogue of Increase Mather's works, to one of his latest (No. 149 of Mr. Sibley's list). The "Advice" was given in his 83d year, "without using any notes;" "nor could we have come at this particular Sermon, if we had not been beholden to the Pen of a pious Gentlewoman belonging to his Flock, who gives us this Copy of what the Ready-Writer took from him, as he delivered it."—C. Mather's Mantissa.

940 — Angelographia, or A Discourse concerning the Nature and Power of the Holy Angels . . Delivered in several Sermons: To which is added, A Sermon concerning the Sin and Misery of the Fallen Angels: Also a Disquisition concerning Angelical-Apparitions. pp. (16), 132, 44, dark red grosgrain levant morocco, gilt back, ins. borders, g. e. (Bedford).

B. Green and J. Allen, for S. Phillips, 1696

The Disquisition concerning Angelical Apparitions is separately paged, and has the imprint: Boston, for Samuel Philips, 1696.

941 — † An Arrow against Profane and Promiscuous Dancing. Drawn out of the Quiver of the Scriptures. By the Ministers of Christ at Boston in New-England, pp. 30, olive morocco extra, g. e. (Bedford). VERY RARE. 8° Samuel Green, 1684

The motto of the title-page (taken from William of Paris) is: "Chorea est Circulus cujus Centrum est Diabolus,"—'the Dance is a circle whose Centre is the Devil'!—"Such Church-Members in N. E. as have sent their Children to be Practitioners or Spectators of mixt Dancing between Young Men and Maidens," says the Reverend author (p. 29), "have cause to be deeply humbled. But stand still a while! what a word is here! Church-members and their Children in N. E. at mixt Dances! Be astonished, O ye Heavens! without doubt, Abraham is ignorant of us, and Israel knoweth us not!'

In November, 1684, the Ministers of Boston "come to the Court and complain against a Dancing Master [Mr. Francis Stepney] who seeks to set up here, and hath mixt Dances, and his time of meeting is Lecture-Day, and 'tis reported he should say that by one Play he could teach more Divinity than Mr. Willard or the Old Testament. Mr. Moody said 'twas not a time for N. E. to dance. Mr. Mather struck at the Root, speaking against mixt Dances." (Sewall's Diary.) Mr. Stepney was ordered not to keep a dancing school. Disregarding the prohibition, in February, 1685–6, he was prosecuted and fined £100, for "speaking blasphemous words," but the payment of all but £10, was remitted on condition that he should leave Boston before the last of March. Just then, a second impression of "The Arrow against Dancing" was published.

942 — Awakening Soul-Saving Truths, Plainly delivered in several Sermons [on the Called and the Chosen], pp. (2), ii, 100, (1), a corner torn from last leaf. 12° S. Kneeland, for B. Gray & J. Edwards, 1720

VERY RARE. "Not in C. Mather's list or in any library catalogue." Mr. Sibley gives the title (No. 145) from Mr. Brinley's copy, and mentions no other.

Printed and Sold by John Foster over against the Sign of the Dove.* 1676

Title (1 leaf), To the Reader (4 pp.), A Brief History &c. pp. 1–51, (1 blk. p.), Postscript, and Errata, pp. 8.—Title, "An Earnest Exhortation," &c., pp. (4), 26. A good, sound copy of this EXCEEDINGLY RARE book. No epithet can be too strong to characterize the scarcity of the one introuvable which so long escaped the search of American collectors; so rare, that Prince did not secure it for his New England Library, though he could pick up half a dozen Bay Psalm Books; so rare that S. G. Drake, the most indefatigable and successful of collectors, could not find it for his reprint, in 1862, and was obliged to copy even his title page from the London edition; and so rare that Mr. Sabin himself, when noting the fact (in the Menzies Catalogue) that "the New England edition is not mentioned by Lowndes, nor elsewhere, so far as we have been able to ascertain," makes the reluctant admission that "perhaps, no copy of it exists."

Mr. Brinley's copy is in fine condition, clean throughout, except inconsiderable water-stains, easily removable. It is in the original marble-paper wrapper. In trimming, one line of the Errata, on the last page of the Postscript and the Exhortation, was cut into, and a few of the signatures and catch-words were touched: but the injury is so slight that in a volume of less rarity and bibliographical importance, it would not be worth mention.

This tract, as published, contains, after a prefatory address "To the Reader" [probably by Cotton Mather,] 2 pp.; I. The Great End and Interest of New-England, by Jonathan Mitchel; II. The Cause of God, and His People in New-England; a Sermon of Mr. John Higginson; III. New-England's True Interest, [by] William Stoughton; IV. The Testimony Finished, by INCREASE MATHER—dated Nov. 10, 1722—his LAST PUBLISHED WORDS, written "in the Eighty-fourth year of [his] Age, and under a Feebleness in the Valley of the Shadow of Death." The first Article, by Jona. Mitchel, is "extracted from an Instrument of his which bears date, Dec. 31, 1662." In "extracting" very great liberties, it appears, were taken with the original. Mr. Prince notes: "N. B. The following Piece of Mr. Mitchel's was wrote in answ'r to a letter of Mr. Higginson of Salem, who being to preach the Election Sermon, wrote to Mr. Mitchel to give his Thoughts upon the subject." "N. B. Having compar'd the follow'g Extract, with the Original MS. of Mr. Mitchel, I find these variations." The variations are noted, and the large omissions supplied, in Prince's very neat chirography, on the margins, blank pages, and on two leaves inserted. There is scarcely a sentence without a correction, and the additional matter is nearly equal, in amount, to the printed extract. The tract is in beautiful condition.

8° n. p. [London?] Printed in the year 1669

A second title-page, placed after the Preface, has the imprint : London, Printed for John Allen in Wentworth Street, near Bell Lane, 1669.

This is the FIRST of Increase Mather's acknowledged publications. It stands as No. 1 in Mr. Sibley's catalogue of Mather's works (Harvard Graduates, 438.) Isaiah Thomas (Hist. of Printing, i. 286) says: "There is in an ancient library in Boston, a copy of Increase Mather's Mystery of Israel's Libation (sic) printed in London, by John Allen. It is supposed he came to Boston by encouragement from the Mathers." But Allen's name does not appear on the first title-page, and on the second the imprint is "for"—not as Thomas has it—by Allen. The work may have been printed by Green at Cambridge, and some copies may have been provided with a special title-page for the London market. It is certain that both title-pages were printed from the same types.

Collation: Epistle to the Reader, by John Davenport, 1667 (11 pp.); To the Reader, by W. G. (4 pp.); To the Reader, by W. H[ooke] (14 pp.); The Author's Preface (14 pp.); Text, pp. 181; Table, &c. (9 pp.)

1008 — The Mystery of Israel's Salvation. Another copy, clean and sound, in the original binding, well preserved.
8° London, for John Allen, 1669

This copy has only one title-page, which has the London imprint in full. In a penciled note, Mr. Brinley quotes what Thomas says of the printer (or publisher) John Allen, and adds: "The two most complete collections of the Mathers' writings are those of Harvard College and the Am. Antiq. Society. Neither of these includes this work." It is not in the Prince or the Mass. Hist. Society's Catalogue.

This London reprint is VERY RARE. It is not in Mr. Sibley's list.

1012 —? The Original Rights of Mankind Freely to Subdue and Improve the Earth. Asserted and Maintained. By I. [or J.] M. pp. (6), 22, UNCUT. 8° Boston, for the Author, 1722

Attributed to Mather, in the Am. Antiq. Society (Haven's) catalogue, and by Mr. Sibley (No. 157), on the authority of a copy on which I. M. is extended to "I. M*ather, D.D.*" in a nearly contemporary hand-writing. Mr. Brinley's copy is so inscribed, and is probably the one to which Mr. Sibley refers. The main argument of the tract is, that "Monopolizing dormant lands subjects the Colony to Slavery," and that all "dormant (unimproved) Lands ought to be Taxed for the support of government," and it appeals to the General Assembly to "undo heavy Burdens, break every Yoke, make us a free People, to Enjoy without Price or Purchase what God hath freely given us," &c. It is EXTREMELY RARE. If by Mather (which seems very doubtful) it is the last work (independently) published by him.

The title page was mutilated. It has been admirably restored, by Bedford, but wants a few letters (and date) in the imprint. The volume also wants one leaf, pp. 193–4. In other respects, it is a good copy.

The Rev. John Williams (the "Redeemed Captive") wrote on a blank leaf of this volume: "Dono dedit Reverendus Author, Johanni Williams, 1707," and sixty-four years afterwards, his great-grand-daughter wrote: "Eunice Williams Her Book, Jan'ry 1st 1771. A New Year's Gift By Her Hon'rd Grand-Father the Rev'd Stephen Williams" (of Longmeadow). It is in good condition, and has evidently been carefully preserved.

In the first tract, the address "To the Reader" contains a brief notice of the attack on Deerfield and the capture of Mr. Williams and his family, with two marginal corrections, probably by his pen. The discourse makes frequent allusions to recent events: the great snow, of Dec. 1703, and the loss of a Boston ship, in the harbor (p. 8), the storm of April 7th and 8th, 1704, which wrecked the French privateer "designing to do us hurt" (p. 28), the terrible "windy tempest" at Cambridge, in 1682 (pp. 63–4), etc.

No. 1040, "The Times of Men are in the Hand of God," has the same date of imprint, but the preface is dated 9th of 4th month (June 9th) 1675, and the accident which occasioned it occurred May 4th, 1675. See Sibley's Catalogue, Nos. 10, 11, and Haven's, p. 12. On back of title: "Thomas Prince his Book," and "Deborah Prince her Book 1730."

1046 — The Wicked Mans Portion. Another copy, large and fine. 4° John Foster, 1675

"For ye Revd Mr Higginson in Salem" at the head of the title-page, is in the Author's autograph. This is of a later issue than the preceding. Two lines are added to the Errata, on the last page (25) and an error in a marginal note on the same page is corrected.

8° Timo. Green, 1712

"To the Reader," 2 pp., dated May 7, 1712:—"Cyder, and a Spirit Extracted out of it, has been much abused to Intemperance. Some observe, that since it has been so, a strange Blast has been upon the fruit Trees, in many Places; so as that some whose Orchards have yielded 500 Barrels of Cyder in a Year, now produce very little. But there is another sort of Strong Drink imported from the Sugar Islands, which has been of all others the most fatal. It is now called Rum, but it once had another name, and a ridiculous one, viz. Kill Devil. Renowned Mr. Wilson said, it should rather have been called, Kill Men for the Devil."

EXCESSIVELY RARE. "By Mr. Cotton Mather," written by Judge Sewall on his own copy of this Almanac, removes all doubt as to the authorship, if any could remain after a glance at the nine pages addressed to the Reader, in style notably Matherese. A letter from Rev. Simon Bradstreet of New London, written early in 1683, to Increase Mather (printed in The Mather Papers, p. 479) returns thanks to him and his son, for "the verses and Almanacks" sent, and a manuscript note, on this letter, by Prince, says: "Mr. Cotton Mather published an Almanack for 1683, beginning with March."

This is the SECOND — it has hitherto been regarded as the FIRST work published by Cotton Mather. The earliest publication ascribed to him in the list given by his son is "The Call of the Gospel," 1686. But see, below, Nos. 1195 and 1106.

John) Hale of Beverly, doubtless, who was at Harvard College in the next class to Nathanael Mather.

The name of Samuel Mather, signed to the prefatory address, probably occasioned the error in the Mass. Historical Society's, and the Prince Library catalogues, by which the authorship of the book is assigned to him instead of to Cotton Mather.

BURNET, THOMAS HUTCHINSON, &c. Bound between guard-leaves, in an elegant quarto volume, morocco extra, paneled sides, gilt edges, with clasp.

A volume of remarkable interest. The letters of Dr. Mather (about 50 in number) were written from Boston to his son, during the latter's service as deputy-commissary at Fort Edward and in Canada, and his subsequent residence in Quebec, until his appointment to a clerkship in the customs at Boston. The son, remaining loyal to the crown, became a refugee in England. His correspondence with his father was renewed after the peace, and this volume contains three letters addressed to him in 1783 and 1784, when Dr. Mather was in his seventy-eighth year. To these are added, thirteen letters from THOMAS HUTCHINSON to Samuel Mather, the younger, written while both were in England, 1779–83; a letter from Judge SAMUEL SEWALL, from London, Aug. 3, 1689, to his wife in Boston; a letter from Samuel Sewall (junior) to his brother, Nov. 26, 1713 (giving an account of the sickness and numerous deaths in Boston); one from COTTON MATHER (imperfect), sent with the manuscript of his "Nehemiah" (printed in 1721) to Judge Sewall; and another, of higher interest to historians, the original draught (four closely-written pages, with numerous corrections) of COTTON MATHER'S LETTER TO GEORGE VAUGHAN, Agent for New Hampshire, March 3, 1708, concerning the genuineness of the instrument known as the Wheelwright Deed of 1629. (This letter was printed in the Appendix to Belknap's History of New Hampshire, and has been frequently referred to by writers who have taken part in the Wheelwright deed controversy.) A letter from Col. Edmund Quincy of Braintree, to Judge Sewall, Jan. 1721, replying to a question concerning the order of march of the Israelites in the wilderness, one from Gov. Wm. Burnet to S. Sewall, 1728 (injured), two or three from Mrs. Hannah Mather, wife of Dr. Samuel (and sister of Gov. Hutchinson) to her son, and several others are included in the collection.

This volume was formerly in the possession of Mr. Samuel G. Drake, who printed brief extracts from two or three of the letters, in the Introduction to his edition of Mather's History of Philip's War (pp. 18–22).

16° London; Printed in the Year, 1688: Reprinted at Boston, 1714

The preface, dated Feb. 26, 1713–14, announces that, "a scheme of a Bank of Credit, founded upon a Land Security, has been projected; and will be humbly offered to the Consideration of the General Assembly, at their next Session." The tract "sets forth in a plain and familiar way, not only the Nature, but the Feazibleness and Utility of such a Fund of Credit." This seems to have been the first gun fired in the Land Bank war of 1714–21.

The name of the author is signed at the end of the Letter, which is dated Oct. 22, 1714.

1432 — Some | Considerations | Upon the several sorts of | BANKS | Propos'd as a | Medium of Trade: | and | Some Improvements that might be made | in this Province, hinted at, | pp. 16, clean, uncut. 8° Boston, T. Fleet and T. Crump, 1716

An EXCESSIVELY RARE tract, apparently unknown to American bibliographers. Only its abridged title is given in the Havens (Am. Antiq. Soc.) Catalogue, on the authority of Thomas Prince's MS. It is one of the few publications bearing the imprint of "T. Fleet and T. Crump." (See Thomas, Hist. of Printing, i. 301.) The author was opposed both to the private and public Bank projects, and advocated the issue of public bills, to be loaned to the several towns, at five per cent.

1433 — The Present Melancholy Circumstances of the Province Consider'd, and Methods for Redress humbly proposed, in a Letter from one in the Country to one in Boston, pp. 16. [Dated, March 6th, 1718–19.]

16° Boston, for B. Gray and J. Edwards, 1719

No title-page; the date is in a colophon. Quoted by Felt, Mass. Currency, p. 71.

1434 — [COLMAN (JOHN)] The Distressed State of the Town of Boston, &c. Considered. In a Letter from a Gentleman in the Town, to his Friend in the Countrey, pp. (2), 10. 16° Boston, for Nicholas Boone, Benjamin Gray, and John Edwards, 1720

EXTREMELY RARE. April 12th, 1720, Gov. Shute called the attention of the Council to this pamphlet, and it being regarded as tending to disturb the administration of the Government, as well as the public peace, by reflecting on acts and laws of the Province, the Justices of the Peace were directed to inquire after the author and publisher, and proceed therein, &c. — Felt's Hist. of Mass. Currency, p. 74. The writer was a prominent supporter of the Private Bank project, and declares that "it was a very wrong step to crush [it] and set up this Publick Bank in its place" &c. (p. 7). He sees no remedy for hard times but inflation; thinks the Government should "go on some great and expensive work, and Emit Bills to carry it on;" "if there was a Bridge built over Charles River, if Fifty Thousand Pounds were expended to make it durable &c., this would help us by imploying the Poor, and the circulation of the Bills would be a great service to every body," &c.

1435 — A Letter from One in the Country to his Friend in Boston, containing some Remarks upon a late Pamphlet, entituled, The Distressed State of the Town of Boston, &c., pp. (2), 22, uncut, except a bit cut from (a blank) corner of title-leaf.

12° Boston, J. Franklin, for D. Henchman, 1720

The letter is dated, at the end, April 23, 1720, and was printed, probably, before J. Franklin was succeeded by S. Kneeland, as printer of the Boston Gazette, which was at this time the organ of the Governor's, Council's, and "Public Bank" party. Like all others of this series of tracts, it is EXTREMELY RARE.

1436 A Vindication of The Remarks of One in the Country, upon The Distressed State of Boston, from some Exceptions made against 'em in a Letter to Mr. Colman, pp. 20, a fine copy, without blemish, and UNCUT. 16° Boston, S. Kneeland, for D. Henchman, 1720

Dated, May 24th. By the author of "the Letter from One in the Country" in reply to "Some Remarks, of the 16th of May," on that Letter. ["A Letter from a Gentleman, containing Some Remarks upon the Answers to Mr. Colman," &c. Boston, pp. 15.] He promises, in a short time, to submit to the public, a Project he had hit upon, for emitting an hundred thousand pounds of bills. (See the next following number.)

1437 — A Project for the Emission of an Hundred Thousand Pounds of Province Bills, in such a Manner as to keep their Credit up Equal to Silver, and to bring an Hundred Thousand Pounds of Silver Money into the Country in a few Years, pp. 16, no title-page, date and printer's name at the end, UNCUT.

8° Boston, S. Kneeland, for J. Edwards, 1720

By the author of the "Letter from One in the Country" and "A Vindication." Dated, July 18th. Appended, pp. 14–16, is a brief reply to Mr. Colman's second tract (No. 1439).

1438 Reflections On the Present State of the Province of Massachuset-Bay in General, and Town of Boston in Particular; Relating to Bills of Credit and the Support of Trade by Them: As the same has been lately represented in several Pamphlets, pp. 22, fine clean copy, UNCUT, with nearly 2 pages of MSS. criticisms, on an unprinted leaf, at the end, and a long note in margin of pp. 13, 14.

12° Boston, for B. Eliot and D. Henchman, 1720

Dated, July 2d. VERY RARE. The manuscript notes in the same hand as in No. 1439, are by a determined opponent of inflation. "This work," he writes "supposeth that in unbalanced Extravagant Trade, managed by a Paper Medium — let the prices of things rise never so high, yet the Medium shall keep its prime Value, even when every thing else alters, which is an utter impossibility. All the power and wisdom of this World cannot make a 20*sh.* bill, wch was once equal in value to a yard of Cloath, equal to it when the same or a like yard of Cloath comes to be 40 shill. in value," etc.

39 — COLMAN (JOHN) The Distressed State of the Town of Boston Once more Considered. And Methods for Redress humbly proposed. With Remarks on the pretended Country-man's Answer to . . . The Distressed State of Boston &c. With a Schæme for a Bank laid down: And Methods for bringing in Silver Money, Proposed, pp. (2), 22, uncut, with cotemporary manuscript notes and adverse comments [by the Reverend Country-man ?], filling the margins of several pages. 16° Boston, for Benjamin Gray, [1720]

Dated, at the end, July 20th. Colman alludes (p. 1) to the high "character of him who is accounted the Author" of "the pretended Country-man's" Letter; charges him with "forgetting the Scriptures, though (if I am not out in my guess) his Profession is to Study them" (p. 3): and "advises the Gentleman to stick to Divinity for the future." "I like him," he says (p. 16) "much better in the Pulpit, there I'll willingly receive his Instructions; but now he is out of his sphere."

1440 — New News from Robinson Cruso's Island, in a Letter to a Gentleman at Portsmouth, (n. t. p.) pp. 8.
16° Cruso's Island [Boston], 1720

Dated, at end, Dec. 19th, 1720. Written by an advocate of a larger emission of bills of credit, and against the majority in the Council and the supporters of Gov. Shute in his contest with the popular party. It abounds in allusions, serious and satirical, to prominent men and measures of the time. A hit at "the great DON DAGO, the Primate-wou'd-be of our Island (like the famous Dr. S——l [Sacheverel])" and his "old Itch of Scribbling," seems intended for Cotton Mather, and so, perhaps, is one at a "Clergy-man who (Commedian-like) will stand belabouring his Cushion and intermixing his Harrangue with THUNDER-BOLTS, while he is entertaining his peaceable Congregation with things whereof he is almost as Ignorant as I am of the Saddle Balaam rode on when his Ass spoke," etc.

When Gov. Shute, in his speech at the opening of the session, March 15, 1721, recommended measures to punish the authors of factious and seditious papers, the House answered that few or none would dare to publish such papers "if proper measures had been taken to discover and punish the authors of a libel, called, News from Robinson Cruso's Island, wherein the members of the House are grossly reflected upon" (HUTCHINSON, ii. 223). To that libel, the "New News" &c., was perhaps a rejoinder. Haven's (Am. Antiq. Soc.) Catalogue has, on the authority of the Prince MS., the title of "Reflections upon Reflections: or More News from Robinson Cruso's Island," attributed (with a query) to Elisha Cooke, the leader of the popular party in the House.

1441 — News from the Moon. A Review of the State of the British Nation, Vol. 7. Numb. 14. Page 53. — Tuesday, May 2. 1710. pp. 8, without title-page, or printer's name, good clean copy.
16° n. p., n. d. [Boston, J. Franklin, 1721?]

A satire aimed, apparently, at the House of Representatives, for their proceedings against the publisher and printer of "New News from Robinson Cruso's Island."

1442 — A Letter to an Eminent Clergy-Man in the Massachusett's Bay, Containing some Just Remarks, and necessary Cautions, relating to Publick Affairs in that Province, pp. (2), 13, UNCUT, except at top. 16° n. p. [Boston,] Printed in the year 1720–[21]

This pamphlet, now EXTREMELY RARE, was printed for Benj. Gray, Feb. 1720–21. At a meeting of the Council, Feb. 28, it was read and considered, and was declared to contain "many vile, scandalous, and very abusive expressions, which greatly reflect on His Majesty's Government and People of this Province, and tend to disturb the public peace." B. Gray, the publisher, was summoned, and "acknowledged that he had caused the same to be printed, and that the original in manuscript was delivered to him by an unknown hand," Feb. 8th. The Council directed the Attorney-General (Paul Dudley) "to prosecute the said Gray, or any other person that may have been concerned in the making or publishing the said Pamphlet." — THOMAS, Hist. of Printing, ii. 425. "I believe," says Thomas, "the affair was terminated by a compromise."

An "Advertisement," p. 12, notices the article in the "last Week's Gazette," "by a certain railing Rabshakeh," who has "attempted to stain the unblemished reputation of a Worthy Gentleman, and a hearty Friend to his Country" ("Americus Patriæ"); and a second Advertisement is dated from "Cruso's Island, 1721," promising for the press "a small Tract intituled, The Saddle set on the right Horse."

1443 — A Letter from a Gentleman in Mount Hope, to his Friend in Treamount, pp. 7, nearly uncut. 16° n. p., n. d. [Boston, 1721]

The Letter is dated, Feb. 27, 1721. It was occasioned by an article in the Boston Gazette of Feb. 20, dated "N. E. Castle William, February, 1720, 21," imputing interested motives to a writer ("Americus Patriæ,") who had advocated a larger emission of bills of credit. The Gazette writer had designated "Americus Patriæ" as "Worldly Wise Man." This allusion, and the account given in the "Letter," pp. 1, 2, of that "Reverend and Worthy Gentleman's" treatment by Andros, point unmistakably to the Rev. John Wise of Ipswich (Chebacco). See Nos. 1442 and 1445.

16° n. p., n. d. [Boston, J. Franklin, 1721]

In this EXTREMELY RARE tract "Amicus Patriæ" [Rev. John Wise] essays "to answer a fool according to his follow," and then, in "a Letter from Amicus Patriæ, to his son, Feb. 23, 1720–21," replies, more seriously, to the imputation of interested motives. The offensive article in the Boston Gazette of Feb. 20, is reprinted, p. 7.

1445 — A Word of Comfort to a Melancholy Country. Or the Bank of Credit . . . fairly Defended by a Discovery of the Great Benefit, accruing by it to the Whole Province, etc., By Amicus Patriæ [Rev. John Wise], fine clean copy, pp. (4), 68.

16° Boston [J. Franklin], 1721

"Humbly Dedicated to the Merchants in Boston." A well-managed and witty plea for paper money and "inflation." It is, for general readers, the most interesting of all the tracts published in the Bank of Credit controversy, while its frequent references to trade, manufactures, industries, and home-life in Boston and in the country towns, give it, to the historian and antiquary, an exceptional value.

For the evidence on which I have attributed this work to Mr. Wise, the witty author of "The Churches Quarrel Espoused," and "A Vindication of the Government of N. E. Churches," see No. 1443. — T.

1446 — English Advice To the Freeholders, &c., of the Province of the Massachusetts-Bay, pp. (2), 6, uncut.

8° Boston, J. Franklin, 1722

EXTREMELY RARE. Not in the Am. Antiquarian Society's, the Prince, or the Mass. Hist. Society's catalogues. It is an earnest appeal to the Freeholders &c., to consult and prepare for the election of "able and faithful PATRIOTS," to sit in the General Assembly, in May, 1722, and men who are able "to project schemes for reviving the sinking condition of the Province"; and they are urged to mark the "three or four misguided gentlemen that were active in promoting and drawing up the two Acts, in 1720," for preventing Riots &c., and "for preventing Libels and scandalous Pamphlets, &c.," both of which Acts were "so justly rejected by the House." It is dated, April 18th, and subscribed "Brutus" and "Cato." The pretence that it was received from England was, of course, intended merely as a blind.

1447 — Money the Sinews of Trade. The State of the Province of the Massachusetts-Bay Considered, with respect to its Trade for want of a Medium of Exchange wherewith to manage it. Recommended . . . more especially to the Merchants and Traders in the Town of Boston. By a Lover of his Country, pp. 16, good copy.

8° Boston, S. Kneeland & T. Green, 1731

The author proposes that Merchants and Traders shall enter into copartnership for issuing bills or notes for circulation, to be loaned on land security, &c. He dwells on the bad effects that have resulted from giving currency in Massachusetts to Rhode Island bills: "We have given the bread out of our own mouths, and enrich'd them, who now despise us for so doing."

1448 — Trade and Commerce Inculcated; in a Discourse, Showing the Necessity of a Well-governed Trade, in order to a Flourishing Common-Wealth. With some Proposals for the bringing Gold & Silver into the Country for a Medium of Trade, [and] for supporting the Credit of the Paper-Currency. By Amicus Reipublicæ, pp. 58, uncut. 8° n. p. [Boston,] Printed for the Author, 1731

Dated, Boston, Feb. 21, 1740–41. Against the Land-Bank, or "Manufactory Scheme." The members of this association, which the writer regards as a "pernicious grand Bubble," "value themselves as being formidable by their numbers, 2000 principals, as they publish, and many thousand abettors." See HUTCHINSON, ii, 352–354; FELT'S Hist. of Mass. Currency, p. 106, and after.

1455 — A Letter from a Gentleman in Boston, To his Friend in Connecticut, pp. 15, uncut. 4° n. p., n. d. [Boston, 1743]

The Letter bears date, Feb. 27, 1743–4. It contains a reply to "Heads proposed for an Act of Parliament, to regulate and finally suppress Paper-Currencies in the N. E. Colonies," in which Rhode Island for her enormous emissions of paper money, and "that infamous combination called Land Bank," in Massachusetts, were severely censured. The writer aims to show that there is no necessity for such an Act.

By Thomas Thumb, Esq., pp. 24, blue calf, extra gilt, UNCUT. 8° n. p. [Boston,] Printed in July, 1754

A beautiful copy of this VERY RARE tract, which gave such offence to the legislature of Massachusetts that it was ordered to be burnt by the common hangman, and Daniel Fowle, suspected of having printed it, was arrested and imprisoned. See Thomas's History of Printing, i. 333-339. It gives a satirical account of the debate on the Excise Bill, in the Council, after its passage by the House. The reputed author was Samuel Waterhouse. Mr. Sabin (Dictionary, No. 12982) says: "Of this work . . . not more than three or four copies are known," to have escaped the fire to which it was condemned by the General Court.

To house of ale from house of God."

1647 — Inoculation. [A Friendly Debate, between Mun-Dungus Sawney and Academicus], wants title-page and last two leaves, pp. ii, 1–18. 8° [Boston, 1722]

Extremely Rare. Manifestly inspired by Cotton Mather, and perhaps written by his nephew Thomas Walter. Mun-dungus Sawney is, of course, Dr. Douglass, — the opprobrious epithet being suggested, apparently, by his "M.D." It is dedicated "To my very Worthy Physician, Mr. Zabdiel Boylston."

1648 — – [Douglass (Dr. Wm.)] The Abuses and Scandals of some late Pamphlets In Favour of Inoculation of the Small Pox, Modestly obviated, and Inoculation further consider'd in a Letter to A— S— M.D. & F.R.S. in London, uncut, pp. (4), 11. 8° J. Franklin, 1722

In this rejoinder to "A Vindication of the Ministers," &c. and "A Friendly Debate," Dr. Douglass treats Cotton Mather "with a philosophical freedom," as he terms it. "The University of Glasgow .... gratify'd his Vanity with a D.D. .. Perhaps he may oblige this his Alma Mater to disown him for a Son, as it seems the Royal Society have already done, by omitting his name in their yearly Lists."

Philip Ashton was a native of Marblehead. In 1722, he and his kinsman, Nich. Merritt, were taken prisoners by the pirate Low, at Port Rossaway, Cape Sable, and carried to the West Indies. He made his escape to an uninhabited island, near the Main, from which he at last obtained a passage to New England, and landed at Salem, May 1, 1725. Mr. Barnard preached a Sermon, on his return, and published this narrative of his adventures. "The book is full of incident, and little known to the book collectors of New England," — says Mr. Stevens, in a note on the English reprint, in his Nuggets, p. 40.

The Register for 1785, by Nathan Daboll, published by T. Green, is the first of "Green's Registers;" but in 1830, Col. Samuel Green, the publisher, began to number the series, from 1791, the year in which his name first appeared (with his father's) in the imprint. The Register for 1830 is "No. 40," and that for 1848 (the last published for Samuel Green) is No. 58.

The earlier numbers of the Register are VERY SCARCE, and few Connecticut collectors have succeeded in making a set complete.

2053 DE FOREST (J. W.) History of the Indians of Connecticut, engravings, cloth. 8° Hartford, 1851

2054 ELECTION SERMONS: 1713 to 1830 (inclusive), in good order for binding, except the Sermon for 1727, which wants the last leaf. 114 Sermons. 16°, 4°, and 8°

The Election Sermons of 1729, 1735, 1739, and 1743, were not printed. Five sermons were printed in Cambridge and Boston, before a press was established in Connecticut. Of these five, four will be found elsewhere in this Catalogue: namely, J. Fitch's, 1674 (the FIRST PRINTED), No. 767; S. Wakeman's 1685, No. 880; J. Whiting's, 1686, No. 888; and G. Saltonstall's, 1697, No. 854. Only three (1710–12) were printed in Connecticut before that of J. Bulkeley, 1713, with which this series begins.

Mr. Brinley began this collection of these Sermons nearly forty years ago, and allowed no opportunity of completing and perfecting it to escape. His success is almost unexampled. Many of the earlier sermons are EXTREMELY RARE, and nearly all, before 1790, are scarce. It is unnecessary to remark on the importance of a series of the Election Sermons, to any historical library. There is scarcely any source from which so much light is thrown on colonial institutions, civil and political, as well as religious.

From 1713 to 1764, inclusive, the Election Sermons were printed at New London: 1765–1770, alternately at Hartford and New London; 1771–74, N. London; 1775–1818, Hartford, except 1778, N. Haven; 1818–1830, alternately, Hartford and New Haven. The size was, from 1710 to 1764, 16° (hf. sheet 8°); from 1765 to 1784, various, 4° and 8°; after 1784, uniformly 8°.

2055 ELECTION SERMONS: 1717 to 1830 inclusive, but wanting thirteen years of the series. 97 Sermons, bound and unbound.
16°, 4°, and 8° v. p.
The Sermons wanting are for the years 1719,–22,–23,–24,–28,–40,–41,–44,–46,–66,–71, 1819,–20. The collection contains several duplicates, not counted.

Dr. Moffatt was a reputable physician of New London, and held the office of Controller of the Customs, at the beginning of the Revolution, when, says his reverend eulogist— "the Libertines 'gnashed on him with their teeth,' as the Cyrenians did on Stephen, because he was loyal to his King, . . and like the deaf Adder, they 'stopped their Ears, ran upon him, and cast him out of the City'" (p. 24).

For full and impartial accounts of John Rogers of New London, the founder of the sect of "Rogerenes," sometimes called "Rogerene Baptists," and "Rogerene Quakers," see Backus's History of N. E. Baptists, i. 473–480; ii. 105–108; and Miss Caulkins's History of N. London, pp. 202–221. John Rogers, senior, who died in 1721, published numerous books and pamphlets, nearly all of which were without date, place, or name of printer. "A Midnight Cry" was several times reprinted. The editions, probably, were small, and as the circulation of the books was restricted to the sect, copies of the earlier impressions are now VERY RARE, and are still more rarely found complete or in tolerable condition.

"In 1758, the Rogerenes published an abstract of the history of ancient persecutions in N. E., with high encomiums upon those Quakers who returned and were hanged at Boston, after they had been banished on pain of death; and a reproof to their own society and others for declension from that temper and spirit. For a description of and extracts from this curious and VERY RARE book — the first volume of verse, printed in Connecticut — see Duyckinck's Cyclop. of Am. Lit., i. 79. The greater part of the volume (pp. 19–78) is occupied with "A Brief Account of the Agency of the Honourable John Winthrop, Esq; in the Court of King Charles the Second, Anno Dom. 1662, When he obtained for the Colony of Connecticut His Majesty's Gracious CHARTER;" in which the author relates the early history of the Colony, the Pequot war, etc.

MANUSCRIPTS.

ACCOUNT BOOK OF MAJOR JOHN TALCOTT.

2135 TALCOTT (JOHN) MANUSCRIPT ACCOUNT BOOK, 1674–88; including his accounts with the Colony, of his receipts and disbursements, as Treasurer, during the INDIAN WAR, 1675–6. Continued by his son, Samuel Talcott, to 1728. Elegantly bound, in full dark brown levant morocco extra (by Bedford). cap folio.

Major Talcott was Colony Treasurer from 1659, until his death, in 1688; an Assistant, from 1662; and Commander-in-chief of the Connecticut forces in the Indian War, in 1676. This volume contains his public as well as his personal accounts, for about 15 years. Every page has matter of interest to students of Connecticut history, and there are many entries sufficiently curious to attract even the most cursory reader. Here is one account, as it stands on opposite pages of the ledger (pp. 54, 55):

"1676. Capt. John Stanton of Stonington, DR. To sundry Commissions gave Capt. Stanton to proceed ag^t y^e Indians: by which he gained much on sales of captives."

"CONTRA. 1677, April 30. Per received an Indian Girll of him, about 7: years old, which he gave me for Commissions on the other side, or at best, out of good will for my kindness to him."

That Major Talcott was careful to save all the property of the Colony for which, as magistrate or treasurer, he was in any measure responsible, the following entry bears testimony:

"1679. Jan. 1. COUNTRY, DR. To so much paid Wm. Edwards, for taking Henry Green out of the Dungeon, being dead, — cutting off his legs to save his Irons, & seeing to his buriall, for which I promised & p'd him £00.10.00."

HARTFORD COUNTY-COURT RECORDS, 1718–19.

2136 The Original Records of the Hartford County Court, April 8th, 1718, to June 9, 1719. Also, Records of the Court for the Trial of Small Causes, in Hartford, [before Hezekiah Wyllys Esq. J. P.,] June 21, 1727 – May 17, 1731: and of the Court of Chancery or Equity, holden at Hartford, May – Aug. 1736, [for the decision of cases growing out of the repeal of the act of Incorporation of the New London Society United for Trade and Commerce.] Half dk. brown levant morocco extra (F. Bedford). folio.

This volume — rescued a few years since from a paper-mill — is of much interest to Connecticut historians and antiquaries. It fills a gap — which, certainly, ought never to have been made — in the original records of both the Hartford County Court and the Colonial Courts of Equity. Col. Hezekiah Wyllys, of Hartford, was Secretary of the Colony, from 1712 to 1735, and a Judge of the County Court.

This highly interesting and valuable historical sketch is addressed to the Rev. Thomas Clap, President of Yale College, at whose solicitation it was written, when the author was in his 81st year. It is dated from Windsor, July 12, 1759.

EXCESSIVELY RARE, if not UNIQUE. Its title is not in Haven's (Am. Antiq. Soc.) Catalogue, in Sabin's Dictionary, or in any other Catalogue that has been consulted. It was perhaps privately printed. This, the only known copy, has several corrections of the text, which seem have been made by the author.
When this tract was written, Roger Sherman was in business as a country-merchant, in New Milford, but was prosecuting the study of law. He was not admitted to the bar until December, 1754. This is not only the earliest but (with the exception of his Almanacs) the only work published by the man whom Jefferson pointed out as one "who never said a foolish thing in his life." Not long after this publication, in his Almanac for 1753, he "fills up a vacant page" (2 pages), with "Thoughts upon the loss and damages which the Inhabitants of the Colony of Connecticut have sustained by the depreciations of the Bills of Credit of Rhode Island and New Hampshire, since the year 1750."

2209 — — A View of the Calvinistic Clubs in the United States, pp. 23, uncut. 12° n. p., n. d. [ab. 1800]

"Connecticut is almost totally an ecclesiastical state, ruled by the President of the College [Dr. Dwight], as by a Monarch" (p. 14). "Time only can determine who have done most injury to Christianity, Paine, or the Calvinistic clubs." The name of the author of this tract (which is now SCARCE) seems to have remained unknown. Mr. Brinley's copy has, on the first leaf, the name of "J. Andrews, from L. Andrews," and below the half-title, in the same hand-writing, "J. C. Ogden," i. e. the Rev. John C. Ogden, of New Haven, 1770–85, afterwards rector of the Episc. Church in Portsmouth, N. H., and again, for a time, in Connecticut, after 1793. I infer that the tract was printed by Loring Andrews in Stockbridge, about 1800.

2409 — CLAGGETT (WILLIAM) A Looking-Glass for Elder Clarke and Elder Wightman, And the Church under their Care. Wherein is fairly Represented the very Image of their Transactions. It being a brief but true Relation of the Cause and Prosecution of the Differences between the Baptized Church, under the Pastoral Care of the aforesaid Elders, and John Rhodes, Capt. John Rogers, William Claggett, and several others that were Members of the aforesaid Church, pp. 26, 230, mottled calf, full gilt back, filleted sides, g. e. (Bedford). 8° n. p. [Boston, J. Franklin:] Printed for J. Rhodes, J. Rogers, and W. Claggett, &c. And are to be sold by J. Rhodes, Shop-keeper in Newport, 1721

A very curious and an EXTREMELY RARE book, which, though it chiefly relates to personal grievances of the author and his friends, contains some matter of larger interest. The parties all belonged to the second (Six Principle) Baptist Church in Newport, of which James Clarke and Daniel Wightman were pastors. — The type is certainly James Franklin's. It is the same that was used for his edition of Hodder's Arithmetic (Boston, 1719) and one of the initial ornaments, p. 3, was used in his reprint of "The Isle of Man," 1719.

PRINTED BY J. FRANKLIN, AND THE WIDOW FRANKLIN.

8° Newport, J. Franklin, at his Printing-House on Tillinghast's Wharf, near the Union-Flag Tavern, 1728

Of EXTRAORDINARY RARITY. The FIRST WORK PRINTED IN RHODE ISLAND, — four years before the date which Thomas (i. 419) gives as that of the establishment of the First Press in Newport. A most desirable acquisition to every Rhode Island collector, it will be scarcely less attractive to collectors of FRANKLINIANA, in other states, since James's "Poor Robin" manifestly gave the hint for Benjamin's "Poor Richard," first printed in 1732. The calendar pages contain many pithy remarks and quaint proverbs, much in the vein of "Richard Saunders, Philom." Mr. Brinley's copy is well-preserved, but probably wants one leaf at the end, though the calendar is complete.

2411 — Adams (Rev. John) Sermon preach'd on the Day of his Ordination [as Pastor of a Church in Newport], pp. (10), 71, half mor. extra. 16° Newport, J. Franklin, 1728

This edition is VERY RARE. It is not in Haven's Catalogue of Ante-Revol. Publications (which notes a Philadelphia edition of the same year). Mr. Sabin mentions it, but by a slip of the pen assigns it to the year 1774 (Dictionary, vol. v, p. 473).

CONDITIONS OF SALE.

1. The highest bidder to be the buyer, and if any dispute arise betwen two or more bidders, the Lot so in dispute shall be immediately put up again and re-sold.

2. The purchasers to give their names and addresses, and to pay down twenty-five per cent. on the dollar in part payment, or the whole of the purchase-money, if required, in default of which the Lot or Lots so purchased to be immediately put up again and re-sold.

3. The Lots to be taken away at the buyer's expense and risk within three days from the conclusion of the sale, and the remainder of the purchase-money to be absolutely paid, or otherwise settled for to the satisfaction of the vendors, on or before delivery: in default of which Messrs. GEO. A. LEAVITT & CO. will not hold themselves responsible, if the Lots be lost, stolen, damaged, or destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser.

4. In preparing the Catalogue, care has been taken to make the description of every book full and accurate, and every deficiency and imperfection which was discovered has been noted: but the sale of any Volume or Lot is not to be set aside on account of any error in the description. The books will be exposed for public exhibition one or more days, and will be sold just as they are without recourse.

5. To prevent inaccuracy in delivery and inconvenience in the settlement of the purchases, no lot can, on any account, be removed during the sale.

6. Upon failure of complying with the above conditions, the money deposited in part payment shall be forfeited; all Lots uncleared within the time aforesaid shall be re-sold by public or private sale, without further notice, and the deficiency (if any) attending such re-sale, shall be made good by the defaulter at this sale, together with all charges attending the same. This condition is without prejudice to the right of the Auctioneers to enforce the contract made at this sale, without such re-sale, if they think fit.

PREFACE.

When the First Part of this Catalogue was issued, a year ago, the compiler believed that the whole library could be conveniently disposed of in three sales, not exceeding a week each. The number of volumes and titles is found to be greater than was supposed, and it has seemed best to divide the catalogue into four parts.

The Second Part, now presented, comprises 1714 lots, and more than 3000 titles. These include the books and pamphlets relating to the Middle States; the Southern States, from Maryland to Georgia — the youngest of the Thirteen Colonies; the American Revolution; Washingtoniana; and such other special collections as naturally come within the range indicated.

The collection relating to the Middle Colonies — and especially, the series of books printed in Philadelphia and New York before 1750 — will be found not less remarkable than that of early New England imprints in the First Part of the Catalogue. It is needless to point out, in a prefatory note, the rarities which readers will not be long in discovering for themselves; but, chiefly for convenience of reference, a list of some of the most important works is appended, and to a few of these the compiler may be allowed to direct special attention.

In First Works, the collection is wonderfully rich. It includes (No. 3367) the First work of the First printer in the Middle Colonies — William Bradford's Kalendarium Pennsilvaniense, Philadelphia, 1685; the First book printed in New York (3444); the First American edition of the Book of Common Prayer (3450); the First Map engraved in New York (3446); the First book known to have been printed in Delaware (3648); probably, the First two books printed in Maryland (3667, 3672: see also, 3670, 3658); and the First two of Virginia (3694, 3818); the First book, the Laws excepted, printed in the Carolinas, or south of Virginia (3886); an imprint of the First press and the First printer in Georgia (3929); the First printed collections of the Laws of New York (3444), Delaware (3648), and Virginia, from an American press (3694); etc.

Of the productions of William Bradford's press, in Philadelphia and New York, forty-five will be found in the Catalogue, seventeen of which were printed before 1700. Four others bear the rare imprint of William and Andrew Bradford: and Andrew Bradford's press in Philadelphia is represented by eleven of its issues. There are twelve works printed by REYNIER JANSEN, three of which were published in 1699, the first year of the re-establishment of a press in Philadelphia (see No. 3452); thirteen printed by SAMUEL KEIMER; and one with the imprint of DAVID HARRY. Of the second press in New York, JOHN PETER ZENGER'S, there are twelve specimens, including several of his earliest and rarest works; one, with the exceptionally rare imprint of J. ZENGER Jun. (3440), and two with that of the Widow Catharine Zenger (3441, 3442). A glance through the pages of the catalogue is enough to show how large a proportion it comprises of the productions of the presses of James Parker, Henry De Foreest, Wm. Weyman, Hugh Gaine, John Holt, and James Rivington, of New York,—and of the third William Bradford, and Thomas Bradford, Anthony Armbruster, James Chattin, Andrew Steuart, William Dunlap, Robert Bell, and other ante-revolutionary printers of Philadelphia.

The collection of the writings of FRANKLIN, books and pamphlets printed by him and his partners, and other Frankliniana, is the largest that has ever been offered in a single catalogue, and, probably, the largest ever gathered in a private library. It comprises more than 200 imprints, in 168 lots. Many of these are of remarkable rarity, and several are rendered unique, by Franklin's autograph notes: see Nos. 3203, 3292, 3323, and, above all, the five Tracts on the Stamp Act and Taxation of the Colonies, Nos. 3218–3222. Especially noteworthy are Sewel's History of the Quakers (3315), the volume on which Franklin and Meredith worked with Keimer in 1728; the first two volumes of the PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE, 1728–30, published, after No. 40, by Franklin and Meredith (3449); and John Meredith's "Short Discourse" (3197), one of the first works of Franklin's press; "Some Observations" by Franklin in defence of Mr. Hemphill (3197), a tract so rare that Mr. Sparks was unable to find a single copy; the "Constitutions of the Free Masons," with twenty-five pages of manuscript, in Franklin's autograph, bound in; Arndt's "Wahre Christenthum," with the imprint of Franklin and Boehm (3272); Renouard's own copy of his elegant edition of Franklin's "Opuscules" (3225); and—among the Frankliniana—the satirical "Epitaph on a certain Great Man" (3267).

Mr. Brinley, like Heber, liked to have duplicates of good books. Four copies of the translation of the Cato Major, printed by Franklin—three of which are exceptionally fine—will be found in this Catalogue (3281–84). Most collectors would be satisfied with one good copy of Gabriel Thomas's Account of Pennsylvania and New Jersey: Mr. Brinley retained three (3102–04). There are two copies of Franklin's Narrative of the Massacres at Lancaster (3063, 3215); and two of the original privately-printed edition of Jefferson's "Notes on Virginia" — one of which (3761) has the author's autograph presentation to David Rittenhouse. But who ever saw — or is likely to see again — two copies of Dickinson's "God's Protecting Providence," in an auction-room, at the same time?

The most careless reader will not overlook certain rarissima whose titles are familiar to, and possession of which is coveted by, every collector, — such as the series of Dutch publications concerning New Netherland (2714–2723); Bradford's Laws of New York (3444) and Book of Common Prayer (3450); the original editions of Colden's History of the Five Nations (2770) and "First Causes of Action in Matter" (2774), and his still rarer "Papers relating to An Act," etc. (3384), containing the engraved Map of the Country of the Five Nations; Horsmanden's History of the Negro Plot (2865); Budd's "Good Order Established" (3042); Lord De-La-Warre's Relation (3742); Bullock's Virginia (3725) and Jones's Present State of Virginia (3773); "Virginia richly valued" (3811), and Williams's "Virgo Triumphans" and "Discovery of Silke-Wormes" (3816–17); Hilton's Relation (3869); Lederer's Discoveries (3875); the Brief Description of Carolina (3842); McCall's History of Georgia (3908); etc., etc. But a more thorough examination of the Catalogue will bring to notice a good many volumes and tracts, not less rare than those which have been mentioned, or less necessary to the completeness of an American library, yet less known to collectors and nearly unnoticed by bibliographers. See, for examples, Holder, 3530; Maule, 3434, 3435; Leeds, 3427; Jenkin, 3440; Pusey, 3452, 3453; Fenwick, 3610; Varlo, 3630–32; Bray, 3667–69; A Fan for Fanning, 3866; Purry, 3883; and others, of which one of the least known, but not the least interesting, is Bradford's reprint of Keach's "War with the Devil" (3405), with commendatory verses prefixed, by "W. B." and "E. B."— William and Elizabeth Bradford.

The writings of the erratic and indefatigable George Keith and the replies made to them occupy 34 numbers of the Catalogue, comprising 42 pieces. The greater part of these will be found on pages 89–91; the others on pp. 105–107 and 119.

It would be inexcusable to pass over, even in these desultory notes, the collection of WASHINGTONIANA. In extent and importance this collection is believed to be unequalled by any other, public or private, in this country. It contains nearly 400 distinct publications; including both editions of "The Journal of Major Washington," in discharge of his first public trust,—the original, printed at Williamsburgh, 1754, and the London reprint, of the same year; "A Memorial" (containing Washington's second Journal), Hugh Gaine's edition, 1757; the first editions of Condie's Biographical Memoirs and Corry's Life of Washington: the London and Philadelphia editions of Marshall's Life; the Boston, New York, and Trenton collections of the "Political Legacies;" the Newport, Baltimore, and Lancaster Washingtoniana; 180 Orations, Sermons, Eulogies, etc., occasioned by the Death of Washington; 37 Birthday and other Commemorative Addresses, etc., etc. Dr. F. B. Hough's "Bibliographical List of Books and Pamphlets relating to the Death of Washington," contains 252 titles; of which, 177 are in Mr. Brinley's collection, with three others not found in that List.

Both the Third and Fourth Parts of the Catalogue will, it is hoped, be printed before the end of the current year, so that the sale of all that remains of the Library may be had in the course of next winter, at latest.

2683 MATHER (COTTON) THE WONDERFUL WORKS OF GOD Commemorated. Praises Bespoke for the God of Heaven, In a Thanksgiving Sermon; delivered on Decemb. 19, 1689 . . . With a Postscript giving an Account of some very stupendous Accidents, which have lately happened in France.—To which is Added a Sermon preached unto the Convention of the Massachuset Colony, With a short Narrative of several Prodigies, which New-England hath of late had the Alarms of Heaven in, pp. (8), 64, 7, 36, 5, (7), calf gilt, (Pratt), FINE COPY. 8° Boston, S. Green, 1690

The second Sermon has a separate title, imprint, and paging: "The Way to Prosperity. A Sermon preached to the Honourable Cunvention of the Governour, Council, and Representatives of the Massachuset-Colony," May 23, 1689. Richard Pierce, for Benj. Harris, 1690. (See S. Mather's Life of C. Mather, p. 43.) An error of the printer makes the last page—number 26, instead of 36.

The Appendix (and its introductory "Mantissa") "touching Prodigies in New-England," are also separately paged. Some of the prodigies narrated are very striking: "In the summer of the year 1688, just before the first eruption of our unhappy War, we had growing in Boston a Cabbage-Root, out of which there sprouted three very wonderful Branches, one of them exactly resembling a Curtlace [Cutlass], another of them as exactly resembling a Rapier, and a third, extreamly like to the Club used by the Indians in their barbarous Executions. I was myself one among the many who visited this Curiosity."

This work of Mather's is of peculiar interest, as containing (in the dedicatory epistle to Sir Henry Ashurst) a copy, cut in wood or type metal, of a portion of the famous DIGHTON ROCK INSCRIPTION.

[Cambridge, 1670]

VERY RARE. Thomas, Hist. of Printing, II. 259, assigns the date of 1670, and quotes — perhaps from a MS. note — "reprinted at Cambridge." This volume, however is not a reprint, but was published from the author's manuscript by his brother, Increase Mather, whose reversed initials, M. I., are subscribed to the prefatory Address. In 1 vol., hf. bound. 4°

In the "Independent Reflector," Livingston vigorously opposed the establishment of an American Episcopate and the incorporation of an Episcopal college in New York. In the Preface—which is so rare as to have nearly escaped notice by the bibliographers—he gives some account of the means employed to suppress the Reflector. James Parker refused to print it, after the end of the first year, and no other printer in New York dared undertake its publication. When the Preface was printed does not appear. The imprint of the general title is: "New York (until tyrannously suppressed) in 1753." On the back of the title is an Advertisement, apologizing for errors of the press, "which were not amended pursuant to the author's corrections: for which, by the necessity to which he was reduced, by the arts and influence of his Adversaries, of applying to the most inartificial of the occupation, will, he hopes, be a sufficient Atonement."—It will be observed that this volume also contains a copy of the scarce "Pietas et Gratulatio" of Harvard College.

Anth. Ambruster?*] 1764

VERY SCARCE. A coarse lampoon on the Presbyterians, who sustained the Proprietor, in his contest with the popular party in the Assembly. The Moderator, "Mr. J..n E...g" [Ewing], is represented as offering, at the end of the Council, a prayer, in which occurs the petition: "Lord! Take the Pistol of thy Vengeance, and the Mortar-Piece of thy Wrath, and pound all our Enemies to Hodge Podge! But for us, thy Children, feed us with the Pruins and Raisins of thy Promises, and give us the Spurs of Confidence, and Boots of Hope," etc.

There is an allusion (p. 6) to "W...n [Wilson?], who was put upon writing that stupid Epitaph on Mr. F...n" [Franklin].

This tract has been attributed—on questionable authority—to Franklin. More probably it was the work of his son William—who next year published, anonymously, another squib of similar character: "A Humble Attempt at Scurrility," etc., "By Jack Retort." The type is, almost certainly, Ambruster's—not Franklin and Hall's.

Mason and Dixon, employed to run the line between Pennsylvania and Delaware, Maryland, and Virginia, were commissioned by the Royal Society to "measure a degree of latitude in America, in the neighbourhood of Pennsylvania," and the astronomer-royal, Dr. Maskelyne, gave his assistance to the work. The result of these observations was published in the Transactions of the Royal Society (vol. lviii.).

Dated, "Philadelphia, the 16th of the 6th moneth, call'd August, 1683."

Ternaux' copy, with his crest and initials on the cover: (yet, in his Bibliothique Americaine, no. 986, he describes it as in quarto, and gives an inaccurate and very meagre abstract of its title. Rich, no. 403*, has the full title, but makes the number of pages, 14, instead of 10.)

The title page is soiled and has received some injury. In other respects, this is a good copy of this tract which is not only VERY RARE, but which has intrinsic value, as one of the corner stones of the history of Pennsylvania and Philadelphia. "It is the best account, though only an imperfect sketch, of the original state of the Province, of its Aborigines, and Natural history, that is to be found in those times." — PROUD'S Hist. of Pennsylv., I., 246.

The printer was Andrew Sowle — from whom William Bradford learned his trade. Bradford came with Wm. Penn to America in 1682. How long he remained in this country or where he was between 1682 and his second coming from England — husband of Sowle's daughter — no one seems to know. Did he resume, for a time, his place in the printing office of his old master? And, if so, is it not more than probable that he put in type this Letter of Penn which has Sowle's imprint?

FRANKLIN'S WORKS,

AND BOOKS PRINTED AT HIS PRESS.

The Works of Franklin are arranged, as nearly as possible, in the order of publication of their first editions. For his autobiography—under various titles—and the Essays which have often been printed with it—see Nos. 3230, and following.

When no place of impression is named, the volume was printed in Philadelphia.

3197 [FRANKLIN.] Some | Observations | on the | Proceedings | against | The Rev. Mr. Hemphill; | with a | Vindication of his Sermons. | The Second Edition. | wants the last 4 leaves (pp. 25–32), half morocco, uncut. 12° B. Franklin, 1735

EXTREMELY RARE. Franklin, in his autobiography, says of Mr. Hemphill and his troubles: "I became his zealous partisan, and finding that though an elegant preacher, he was but a poor writer, I wrote for him two or three pamphlets, and a piece in the Gazette of April, 1735. These pamphlets, as is generally the case with controversial writings, though eagerly read at the time, were soon out of vogue, and I question whether a single copy of them now exists." Mr. Sparks remarks, in a note: "None of these pamphlets has been found."—SPARKS'S Franklin, I. 126. Two replies to these "Observations" will be found in TRACTS, No. 3478.

4° London, v. y.

This volume is from Dr. FRANKLIN'S LIBRARY, and contains MANY MANUSCRIPT CORRECTIONS AND NOTES by him. In the margin of the first edition of his "Experiments," he has entered the names of those to whom he was indebted for experiments, or who had verified them,—"E. Kinnersley," "Dr. Philip Syng," and others. Some of Henley's marginal criticisms of Wilson—which are very sharp—have suffered by the binder's trimming knife, but many remain intact. The volume is one of RARE INTEREST to scientific as well as to literary collectors.

TRACTS ON THE STAMP ACT, AND TAXATION OF AMERICA:

Dr. Franklin's copies, with his Manuscript Notes.

Five volumes, printed in London and Paris, 1765–69, each of which is rendered UNIQUE by copious notes and comments in FRANKLIN'S HANDWRITING. Uniformly bound, by Mr. F. Bedford, in grosgrain levant dark red morocco extra, without gilding, except filleted edges.

3218 (FRANKLIN.) [Knox (Wm.)] The Claim of the Colonies to an Exemption from Internal Taxes imposed by Authority of Parliament, Examined, pp. (2), 46. 8° London, for W. Johnston, 1765

Franklin has written, on the title page, "By Knox Esq., Agent for Georgia." Of his numerous marginal notes, one may serve for a specimen. The author asserts "that the parliament of Great Britain has exercised supreme and uncontrouled jurisdiction, internally and externally, over the properties and persons of the subjects in the colonies." "Highwaymen," comments Franklin, "on Hounslow Heath have for ages past exercised the same Jurisdiction over Subjects here; but does that prove they had a Right so to do?"

3219 — [The Lords'] Protest against the Bill To repeal the American Stamp Act of Last Session, pp. 16, uncut, except at top. 8° A Paris, chez J. W. Imprimeur, 1766

Nearly all the margins are crowded with Franklin's comments and suggestions for a more formal reply, which probably was never written. [The Lords' "Second Protest, with a List of the Voters," etc., with Franklin's marginal notes, of similar character, is described in the catalogue of Mr. T. H. Morrell's Library, and again in the Menzies Catalogue, no. 745.]

3220 — The True Constitutional Means For putting an End to the Disputes between Great-Britain and the American Colonies, pp. (2), 38. 8° London, for T. Becket and P. A. DeHondt, 1769

"Query, Could this be written by Mr. Jackson? From some Expressions and Arguments, it should seem so; but others are so unlike his Precision, that I rather think he is not the Author,"—wrote Franklin, on the title-page. His marginal notes are copious and racy. When the author alludes (p. 26) to "Virginian luxury," and to the numerous servants "at some entertainments," as evidences of the wealth of the colonists, Franklin remarks: "It has been a great Folly in the Americans, to entertain English Gentlemen with a splendid Hospitality, ill-suited to their Circumstances; by which they have excited no other grateful sensation in their guests than that of a Desire to tax the Landlord." As additional proof of the ability of the Colonies to sustain taxation, the writer shows that their importations amount to four millions per annum. "This," comments Franklin, "is arguing the Riches of a People, from their Extravagance—the very thing that keeps them Poor!"

3221 — [Mauduit (I.)] A Short View of the History of the Colony of Massachusetts Bay, With Respect to their Original Character and Constitution, pp. (4), 71, UNCUT. 8° London, J. Wilkie, 1769

"In all the late Disturbances," says the author, "the people of Massachusetts Bay have taken the lead." Franklin's comment is: "The Virginians claim the Honour of having taken the Lead. But, as they are Episcopalians, & the N. E. People Dissenters, of whom Sedition, Republicanism, & Rebellion are more easily believed, & against whom an Accusation of any sort is more readily believ'd, therefore the Ton here [in London] is, to ascribe the Lead to them."

3222 — An Inquiry into the Nature and Causes of the Present Disputes between the British Colonies in America and their Mother-Country, wants after p. 74, fine portrait of Franklin inserted. 8° London, for J. Wilkie, 1769

The margins crowded with spirited and characteristic notes, by Franklin. (One of these, on page 40, ends with a curious illustration, in short-hand, which Mr. Sparks has omitted.)

3223 [—] La Science du Bonhomme Richard, ou Moyen Facile de Payer les Impôts [On a joint à cette petite Piece; L'Interrogatoire que M. Franklin subit . . . devant le Parlement d'Angleterre — La Constitution de la République de Pensylvanie, . . Juillet, 1776 —

12° A Philadelphie, et se trouve a Paris, chez Rualt, 1777

It is not mentioned by Mr. Sabin (Dictionary, no. 25583), who notes Rualt's second edition, Philadelphia et Paris, 1778, "exactement semblable à la première." The Constitution of Pennsylvania has a long "note d'un Amérequain" [Franklin?] and notes by the editor.

EXTREMELY RARE. The publication of this brutal attack on Franklin was one of the incidents of the political contest in Philadelphia in 1764, when the proprietary party succeeded in defeating, by a small majority, Franklin's election as representative in the Assembly. See, in "The Substance of a Council," &c. (No. 3070) p. 6, an allusion to "W... n [Wilson?], who was put upon writing that stupid Epitaph on Mr. F... n."

3268 Memoirs of the late Dr. Benjamin Franklin, With a Review of his Pamphlet, entitled "Information to those who would wish to remove to America," Portrait, pp. 24, uncut, VERY SCARCE.
8° London, A. Grant, for the Author, 1790

"This anonymous writer endeavors to depreciate the character of Dr. Franklin in these Memoirs which are loose, general, and of course deficient. He flatly contradicts the representations used by the Doctor to encourage emigration to America."—Rich.

It is perhaps not generally known that these memoirs supplied the continuation of Franklin's autobiography, for the French translation of the "Mémoires de la Vie privée," published by Buisson, in 1791 (see No. 3230). The French editor, in a note (2de pte., p. 2) observes that "the observations and reflections" of the author of the continuation "are those of an Englishman, and, consequently, of a zealous defender of the Mother Country, as will easily be discovered"; and that "l'Observateur is not in all things the approver of Franklin's conduct and opinions." The most objectionable passages of the English memoir are omitted in the translation: e. g. the statement (p. 34) that Franklin was dismissed from the office of post-master, "for some mal-practice therein." The "Information to those who would wish to remove to America," which was reviewed by the English writer, is given entire in the French translation.

Not by Franklin, though positively ascribed to him by his nephew, the Boston re-publisher, and included in the list of Franklin's Writings by Mr. Sparks. Title, 16 prelim. leaves (including eight pages of a list of subscribers), pp. 1356, portrait, and 63 full-page engravings. In the original stamped vellum, brass clasps, in FINE CONDITION.

"True Christianity"—the most esteemed work of its author, an eminent Lutheran divine (born 1555, died 1621)—was first published, in German, in 1605; and, before 1700, had been translated into several languages. An English translation of the first book was printed in 1646; and of the whole work, by A. W. Boehm, London, 1711, and again, 1720.

The German Evangelical Lutheran Ministerium of Pennsylvania and adjoining colonies was organized in 1748. The Rev. Henry Melchior Muhlenberg—"the patriarch of the Lutheran church in America"—came to Philadelphia in 1742. His name appears in the list of subscribers to this volume, with the names of the other German Lutheran ministers in Pennsylvania—Peter Brunnholtz, Joh. Fr. Handschuh, Joh. Nic. Kurtz, J. P. Leydich, Joh. Lischi, J. F. Schaum, T. Wagner, Joh. Alb. Weygant,—and Joh. Chr. Hartwig, of Rhinebeck, N. Y., who wrote a preface, giving some account of the work and its author.

The editor, the Rev. Philip Boehm, whose name is associated, in the imprint, with Franklin's, as a partner was the first minister of the German Lutherans of Falconer-Swamp Church, Montgomery Co., Pa.

In a description of this volume, printed in the Philadelphia Press, Nov. 10, 1870, the writer, G. H. [George Hamilton?] remarks that Boehm "is not generally known to "have been at one time a partner of Benj. Franklin. So far, in fact, from this being gen- "erally known, it may perhaps safely be said to be almost unknown, so rarely do we meet "with a work with the imprint of Franklin and Boehm. The writer has seen but one such "volume [the one here described.] ... The size of this volume (greater as to the number of "pages than any Franklin publication we have seen or known) it might be thought would "have secured a good many copies from loss or destruction,.. yet I believe no copies are "to be found in our principal public libraries."

The 64 curious (emblematic) copperplate engravings were—as the Preface informs us—obtained, "at great expense to the publisher," from Germany: and to ensure the accuracy of the text (which was reprinted from a Zurich edition of 1746), the proofs had been carefully collated with an edition published for the Magdeburg Evang. Luth. Ministerium.

The collection of moral precepts, in Latin verse, which have come down to us under the name of an unknown "Dionysius Cato," was a standard text-book for young scholars in the middle ages, and until the last century. If they can be regarded as classic, this tract may pass for "the first translation of a classic which was both made and printed in the British colonies." It is VERY RARE.

One of the RAREST of Franklin's imprints, and with additions that make the copy UNIQUE.

The first Provincial Grand Lodge in America was established at Boston, July 30, 1733. On Franklin's application to this Lodge, a charter was granted for a lodge in Philadelphia, of which he was chosen the first Master. This volume contains a manuscript record of the establishment of the Provincial Grand Lodge; and of the application for, and the establishment and organization of the first Boston Lodge; its by-laws, a list of its members, votes, etc., to 1736. This record (or transcript of record) is very neatly written, and a comparison with the handwriting of Franklin, of the same period, shows it to be in HIS AUTOGRAPH, made, probably, "for the use of the Brethren," of the new lodge in Philadelphia.

EXTREMELY RARE. One of the first works from Franklin's press, after he began business for himself, in partnership with Hugh Meredith, at "The New Printing House near the Market." This tract was advertised in the Pennsylvania Gazette, Feb. 10, 1729–30, as "lately published and sold by the Printer."

Who was John Meredith? That the publication of the "Short Discourse" was aimed at Keimer—Franklin's old employer and present rival—seems highly probable. Keimer (as Franklin mentions in his autobiography) "kept the Seventh-Day Sabbath."

3315 SEWEL (WILLIAM) The History of the Rise, Increase, and Progress, of the Christian People called QUAKERS: Intermixed with Several Remarkable Occurrences. The Third Edition, Corrected, pp. (12), 694, (16), covers removed for re-binding, VERY RARE. folio, Philadelphia, Samuel Keimer, in Second Street, 1728

A VERY LARGE, SOUND copy, well preserved, though somewhat yellowed by age. Mr. Brinley had removed the old corners, preparatory to placing it in Mr. Bedford's hands, for rebinding.

Though this volume bears Keimer's imprint, a considerable part of it—and, typographically regarded, the best part—was the work of Franklin. "Breintnal particularly procured for us [Franklin and Meredith,] from the Quakers, the printing 40 sheets of their history, the rest being to be done by Keimer; and upon these we worked exceeding hard, for the price was low. It was a folio, pro patria size, in pica, with long-primer notes. I composed a sheet a day, and Meredith worked it off at press; it was often eleven at night, and sometimes later, before I had finished my distribution for the next day's work."—FRANKLIN'S Life.

Franklin's work is easily distinguished from Keimer's by the difference of the type. The Title and Dedication, pp. 457 to 694, and the Index (16 pp.) are from Franklin's press. These make over sixty (instead of forty) sheets of the whole work.

From the library of the Marquis of Hastings. (See Autograph of "Moira," on page 9 of first tract, and on guard leaf.) This seems to have been Franklin's own copy. The translation of Zinzendorf's "Some at this Time not unprofitable Questions" is, apparently in his handwriting, and was probably made with view to the publication of an edition in English.

BOOKS PRINTED IN PHILADELPHIA AND NEW YORK.

1685 - 1750.

Bibles, Psalters, Psalms in Meter, books in the Indian Languages, the productions of FRANKLIN'S press, and of C. SAUR'S press at Germantown, are not included in this section of the Catalogue.

In the list of George Keith's publications, a few London reprints have been admitted, to fill the series to 1704. His Sermon at Annapolis, July 4, 1703,—printed at Annapolis, the same year—will be found (under MARYLAND) at No. 3672: and his other works printed in England, are put with books relating to the Quakers (Nos. 3534–3544).

THE FIRST ISSUE OF BRADFORD'S PRESS.

3367 KALENDARIUM PENNSILVANIENSE, | or, | America's Messinger. | Being an | Almanack | For the Year of Grace, 1686. | Wherein is contained both the English & Forreign | Account, the Motions of the Planets through the Signs, [&c. 12 lines.] By Samuel Atkins. | Student in the Mathamaticks and Astrology. | And the Stars in their Courses fought against Sesera, Judg. 5.29. | 20 leaves, not paged, UNCUT. 8° Printed and Sold by William Bradford, at Philadelphia in Pennsilvania, 1685

Of SUPERLATIVE RARITY. "The earliest issue of Bradford's press, known to me, is an Almanac for the year 1686, produced of course in 1685. One copy alone seems to have survived to this day, and that one has wandered far from the place of its origin. New England boasts its possession."—WALLACE'S Commemor. Address, p. 26. This is the "one copy" to which Mr. Wallace referred. It was formerly bound up with a volume of Almanacs belonging to Judge Sewall, which came, some ten years ago, into Mr. Brinley's possession. Rich as his library is in monuments of American typography, it contains not many books of so great interest to the collector as this FIRST WORK of the FIRST PRINTER of PHILADELPHIA and NEW YORK.

An Address "To the Reader," by the Editor, dated "Philadelphia, the 3d of the 10th Month (December) Anno 1685," occupies the 2d and half the 3d page, and is followed by one from "The Printer to the Readers," subscribed by "W. Bradford, Philadelphia, the 28th, 10th Month." It begins: "Hereby understand that after great Charge and Trouble, I have brought the great Art and Mystery of Printing into this part of America, believing it may be of great service to you in several respects," &c.

3368 Almanacs. LEEDS (DANIEL) Philomat. An Almanack for the Year of Christian Account 1700, pp. 24.

sm. 8° Printed and Sold by William Bradford at the Bible in New York, 1700

"Friendly Readers; I have now freely served you with an Almanack twice seven years, and as often given you an opportunity to toss my Name to and fro by Censure & Applause," &c.—"I have filled the Vacancy on the top of the Moneths with some Country-fashioned Observations."—Author's Preface.

3369 — Travis. An Almanack, of Cœlestial Motions . . . for the Year[s] . . 1709 [and 1711]. By Daniel Travis. Two good copies, uncut. 8° America [New York, Wm. Bradford] Printed, and sold by N. Boon, Boston, 1709, 1711

JUDGE'S SEWALL'S copies; one (1711) having many of his manuscript memoranda. The Almanac for 1709, was, certainly, from Bradford's New York press. (The cut of "the Anatomy of Man's Body" is printed from the same block used by Bradford in Leeds's Almanacs, 1710, 1713, &c., and there are other unmistakable marks of his typography.) It is probable—but not quite certain—that Travis's Almanac for 1711, and two or three others, with similar imprints, were printed by Bradford for Boston booksellers, 1712–15.

3370 — Leeds, 1710. The American Almanack For the Year of Christian Account 1710 . . . By Daniel Leeds, Philomat.

New York, William Bradford.

Addressed (in Bradford's autograph?) to "Mr. Barth. Green, Printer," of Boston.

New York, WM. BRADFORD and ANDREW BRADFORD, 1711

3372 — Leeds, 1713. The American Almanack, etc., much worn, imprint wanting. [New York, W. Bradford, 1713]

3373 — Leeds, 1715. The American Almanack, etc., complete, except a bit of the title leaf, but with two leaves torn, and stained.
New York, Will. Bradford, 1715
Contains a list of "Books Printed and Sold by William Bradford, at the Bible in New York."

3374 — LEEDS, 1724–26. The American Almanack, for the Year of Christian Account .. 1724, [1725, 1726]. By Titan Leeds, Philomat. (3) 8° Philadelphia, Andrew Bradford, [1724–26]
The last wants one or two leaves, at end.

3375 — TAYLOR, 1726. A Compleat Ephemeris For the Year of Christ 1726 . . . By Jacob Taylor. To which is added, by Another Hand, Calculations . . on the Eclipse of the Sun, &c. with a brief Introduction towards learning the Hebrew and other Tongues, etc. (48 pp.) uncut. 8° Philadelphia, Samuel Keimer.
VERY RARE, and one of the most note-worthy productions of Keimer's press. The "Essay towards learning our Youth the Hebrew Tongue" occupies four pages: and in his Preface Keimer offers a prize ("a valuable book of several sheets") to "the first three hundred Youth, of either Sex" who will perfectly learn the Hebrew alphabet and the Rules for pronouncing the letters.

folio, New York, Wm. Bradford, 1724

SUPERLATIVELY RARE. Mr. Sabin (Dictionary, IV. 222) gave the title from Mr. H. C. Murphy's (imperfect) copy, which he regarded as "probably UNIQUE."

The "Map of the Country of The Five Nations," etc. — said to be "the first map engraved in the Province of New York" — is in its FIRST STATE. The full (engraved) title is: "A MAP of the Countrey of THE FIVE NATIONS | belonging to the Province of New York and of | the LAKES near which the Nations of FAR INDIANS | live with part of CANADA taken from the Map of the | LOUISIANE done by Mr. De Lisle in 1718." The plate subsequently received some correction, and many Indian names were inserted. The last part of the Title, "taken from the Map" etc. was struck out, and the fourth line filled by inserting, after "Canada," "& River St. Laurence." For this later issue, see No. 3446. The (reduced) copy by an English engraver, for the London edition of Colden's History of the Five Nations, 1747, was made from an early impression. "Iagara," as the name appears on the plate of 1724, is "Oniagara," with the word "Falls" added, on the corrected plate; but the English map makes it "Jagara."

EXCESSIVELY RARE. The imprint is in a colophon, on page 22, and below, in the hand-writing of Judge Samuel Sewall (of Massachusetts) is the memorandum: "Rec'd Sept. 19th, 1698." The half-title, on p. 1, does not indicate the full contents of the tract, —which comprises the doings of Governor Bellomont and the Council, in relation to Indian Affairs, up to Aug. 20th, 1698, "At a Council held at his Majesties Fort in New York."

Jenings was elected governor by the General Assembly in 1683, and was sent to England (together with Thomas Budd), in 1684, commissioned to negotiate with Billings.

VERY RARE. Title and 2 prel. leaves, pp. 177. In the original binding, broken. The inside of the cover is lined with parts of a Proclamation for Thanksgiving, by Gov. Hunter, dated in August, the 12th year of Queen Anne [1713], which indicates, nearly, the date of publication. There is evidence enough, in peculiarities of typography, that the volume came from Bradford's press, and the fact is established beyond question by four pages of commendatory verses prefixed to Keach's work,—"By a Friend in Commendation of these Poems," signed "W. B." (William Bradford), and "To the Reader; in Vindication of this Book" (30 lines) by "E. B." Is any other specimen of Mrs. ELIZABETH BRADFORD'S verse extant? Her "Vindication of this Book" is, in fact, a vindication of poetry, undertaken

> —"because at this day,
> All Poetry there's many do gain-say,
> And very much condemn, as if the same
> Did worthily deserve reproach and shame."

A reprint of the first part of No. 3412. Copies of the original edition having been sent to England for sale, "the chief Quakers here, having notice of, bought them all up in order to stifle them, which occasions their Re-printing here in England, the 9th of January, 1692–3."

3414 [KEITH.] New England's Spirit of Persecution Transmitted to Pennsilvania, And the Pretended Quaker-found Persecuting the True Christian-Quaker, In the Tryal of Peter Boss, George Keith, Thomas Budd, and William Bradford, At the Sessions held at Philadelphia the Nineth, Tenth and Twelfth Days of December, 1692. A FINE copy of this EXTREMELY RARE book. Its title to the honor of being the FIRST BOOK PRINTED IN NEW YORK has been disputed, and on strong grounds. Mr. Brinley agreed with Mr. Menzies and Mr. Sabin (Dictionary, no. 37203, and Menzies Catalogue, no. 1135) in giving it to Philadelphia, and his copy is lettered by the binder, "PHIL., BRADFORD."

3415 [KEITH (G.)] The Tryals of Peter Boss, George Keith, Thomas Budd, and William Bradford, Quakers, For several Great Misdemeanours (As was pretended by their Adversaries) before A Court of Quakers: at the Sessions held at Philadelphia [Dec. 9, 10, and 12,] 1692, pp. 34, paneled calf, LARGE AND FINE COPY, VERY RARE. 4° Printed first Beyond-Sea, and now Reprinted in London, for Richard Baldwin. 1693

3416 KEITH (G.) The Heresie and Hatred which was falsly charged upon the Innocent, justly returned upon the Guilty. Elegantly bound, in best grosgrain levant brown morocco, sides panel-gilt with corner ornaments, inside borders, g. e. (Matthews). A very fine, NEARLY UNCUT copy of this tract, which Mr. Sabin fairly describes (Menzies Catalogue, no. 1134) as "MOST RARE."

Bradford?*] Printed in the Year 1694

EXTREMELY RARE. A large and fine copy; from the Library of Edward D. Ingraham. Two leaves of the Preface have been mended on the outer margin, a few words and letters on the lower half of these pages being lost. Mr. Sabin (Dictionary, no. 57224) assigns this volume to Philadelphia: but there was no press at Philadelphia in 1694. This copy has been lettered, by Mr. Ingraham or an earlier possessor, "London." If printed in America, it certainly was printed by William Bradford, in New York, and must take precedence as—the Laws excepted—the FIRST BOOK PRINTED IN NEW YORK. The type is the same—or from the same matrices—as Bradford's. The internal evidence that the volume came from Bradford's press it strong, and would be conclusive, were it not for the occurrence of a very few Hebrew letters—perhaps a dozen, in all,—which I have not found in any other volume printed by him.

3419 Keith (G.) Mr. George Keith's Account of A National Church, and the Clergy, &c. Humbly Presented to the Bishop of London: With some Queries concerning the Sacrament, pp. 8.

3420 KEITH (GEORGE) and EVANS (EVAN). Some of the many false, scandalous, blasphemous, & self-contradictory Assertions of William Davis, faithfully collected out of his Book, printed Anno 1700, etc., pp. 12, no title page; half morocco.

A declaration, subscribed by Keith and Evans, that Davis's assertions are "anti-scriptural and blasphemous;" and (3.) In a chapter "Of Persecution and Prosecution," Leeds mentions, "the imprisoning William Bradford,, and taking away his very Tools that he should get maintenance for his Family by, contrary to the Law of England so justly pleaded by him," etc., "also, their imprisoning Peter Boss, till Providence put the Government into the hands of Coll. Fletcher . . who released him out of Prison" (p. 85).

"Well, to Tryal W. B. [Bradford] was brought. D. Lloyd pleaded hard against him, the Jury had their Charge given by S. Jenings, out they went to try this Crime, but it happening so, that there were one or two upon the Jury that were not Quakers, they stood upon the Nicety (as some of their fellow-Jurors call'd it) of two Evidences, to prove that W. B. printed said Appeal, which not appearing, after about 48 hours the Jury came into Court, and told the Bench they were not like to agree. To whom A. Cook made this learned speech, viv. "Well, seeing, Friends, that you are not like to agree, you are absolved from your Test (Oath) and are discharged; and we will have another Jury that shall agree, and find the Bill." But before another Court, the Government was changed, W. Bradford discharged from his Imprisonment, and they disappointed of executing the Vengence which they intended" (pp. 85, 86).

On page 134, Leeds cites "A Reply &c. by G. C. (i. e. Gulielmus Calamus, Anglice, William Penn) published after K. James came to the Crown"—commending the loyalty of Roman Catholics, etc.

BRADFORD'S LAWS OF NEW YORK.

3444 THE | LAWS & ACTS | of the | General Assembly | for | Their Majesties Province | of | NEW-YORK, | As they were Enacted in divers Sessions, the first of | which began April, the 9th, Annoq; Domini, | 1691. | — | At New-York, | Printed and Sold by William Bradford, Printer to their Majesties, King | William & Queen Mary, | 1694. folio.

With additional Acts bound in, to those passed by the General Assembly, Sept. and Oct. 1708, inclusive.

That the FIRST BOOK PRINTED IN NEW YORK and the FIRST COLLECTION OF THE LAWS OF NEW YORK is a volume of SUPERLATIVE RARITY "goes without saying."

The volume is in excellent preservation, LARGE and FINE, in old (but probably not the original) binding. A former possessor has supplied a neat manuscript table of contents of the additional laws (after p. 92) and has re-numbered the pages with a pen.

The irregularity of the pagination and signatures—with the occasional omission of a law which had ceased to be of force, and the substitution of another in its place—renders the giving of an accurate and intelligible collation of the volume almost impossible. The printed Table of Contents prefixed to the volume shows that, as first made up, it ended with the "Catalogue of Fees" established in September, 1693, at the end of which is the colophon: "Printed and Sold by William Bradford, Printer to Their Majesties, | King William and Queen Mary, at the Bible in New-York, 1693." The verso of this leaf is blank. The three following leaves, containing Acts passed in 1694, seem to have been added after the Table of Contents was printed. For so much of the volume, the collation is tolerably plain: Title, 1 leaf (verso blk.); Table of Contents, 1 leaf; Acts, pp. 1–92 (sigs. A to Z 2), regular to p. 68; between pp. 68 and 69, An Act granting a Rate &c. (Nov. 1692) 1 sheet, (pp. 1–4) is inserted; pp. 69–84, regular; then "A Catalogue of Fees" &c., pp. 1–11 + 1 blk (sigs. A–C) with the colophon, as above. To this follows sig. Z, pp. 89–92. There is no sig. Y (pp. 85–88).

The additions, irregularly paged, are as follow: Acts of 4th Assembly, 2d Session (Oct. 1694)—misplaced by the binder—4 pp. n. n.; 5th A., 1st S. (June, 1695), pp. 101–106, with colophon;—2d Sess. (Oct. 1695; mis-named "6th Assembly, 1st Session," and misplaced by binder), pp. 107–113 + 1 blk.;—3d Sess., (Mch. 1696) 10 pp., n. n., with colophon;—4th Sess. (Oct. 1696), 6 pp., n. n.;—5th Sess. (Mch. 1697) 5 pp. n. n. + 1 blk.; 7th Ass., 1st Sess. [misprinted, 7th Sess.] Mch. 1699 to end of 4th [misprinted, 3d] Sess., Aug. 1701, pp. 119–176,—with 10 pp. irregularly numbered, between pp. 156 and 157 (bis); 1st to 5th Sessions (Regno Annæ), Oct. 1702—June, 1705, pages 177–238 (and 233–238 repeated); and Sessions of June and Sept. 1706, and Sept. and Oct. 1708, 30 pp. n. n.

This collation has been made with some care and is believed to be nearly correct; but the auctioneer will not guarantee its accuracy, leaving its revision and amendment to the fortunate acquirer of the volume.

3445 NEW YORK. Acts | of | Assembly | Passed in the | Province of New-York, | from 1691, to 1725, | old binding, A LARGE, CLEAN, AND FINE COPY. fol. New York, Printed and Sold by William Bradford, 1726

L. Andrews, 1868). It was printed after the plate had received its FINAL CORRECTIONS and the additions of many Indian names. See No. 3384. A copy of the reduced map, engraved for the London edition of Colden's History of the Five Nations, is laid in.

Of the HIGHEST RARITY — if not UNIQUE. In this Speech, Gov. Penn announces that, "through the Endeavours of the Enemies of the PROSPERITY of this Country," he is obliged "to go for ENGLAND."

3449 PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE (The Universal Instructor in all Arts and Sciences: and) Nos. 1–39 (Dec. 24, 1728 — Sept. 25, 1729), wanting Nos. 4 and 5, only. Meredith. 2 vols. grosgrain, levant russia-red morocco, g. e. (Bedford), IN SUPERB CONDITION.

folio, Philadelphia, 1728–30

Such a series of Keimer's and Franklin's first newspaper is of SUPERLATIVE RARITY. The first volume contains Keimer's "Advertisement," dated Oct. 1, 1728 (a half sheet), that "there is design'd to be publish'd the Latter End of November next, a most useful Paper of Intelligence, Entitled, The Pennsylvania Gazette, or the Universal Instructor," etc. In the last number in the volume (No. 39), he gives his valedictory, announcing that "he has agreed with B. Franklin and H. Meredith, at the New Printing-Office, to continue the Gazette to the End of the Year, having transfer'd the Property wholly to them, [D. Harry declining it];" and that "the said S. K. designs to leave this Province very early in the Spring," etc. No. 40 contains the Salutatory of the new publishers. For the Gazette, 1761 (Nos. 1671–1723), see No. 3214.

THE BRADFORD PRAYER-BOOK.

THE FIRST AMERICAN EDITION OF THE BOOK OF COMMON PRAYER.

3450 The | Book | of | COMMON-PRAYER, | And Administration of the | Sacraments. | And Other | Rites and Ceremonies of the Church, | According to the Use of the | Church of England. | Together with the Psalter, | or | Psalms of David, | Pointed as they are to be Sung or Said in | Churches. |

sm. 4° Printed and Sold by William Bradford in New-York, 1710

This copy wants the Title leaf, and a leaf preceding the Title having, on its verso, the royal arms. Photographic copies of the two missing pages, taken by permission from the copy (of the first issue) belonging to the Historical Society of Pennsylvania, are laid in the volume. In other respects, a GOOD COPY, well preserved, in the original binding.

The collation is as follows: [Leaf preceding Title, recto blank, on verso, the royal arms; Title, verso blank;] Rules For the more devout Behaviour in the time of Divine Service, etc. 12 leaves, n. n. (sigs. a, b, c, in fours); Calendar, 4 ll.; The Order how etc., 2 ll. (sig. d); The Order of Morning Prayer etc. to the Commination, sigs. A–Q4; The Psalter, sigs. R to recto of Cc2; Forms of Prayer and Service, for 5th of November, 30th of January, and 29th May (Gun Powder Treason, King Charles the Martyr, and the Restoration,) recto of Cc2–recto of Ee2 in twos; on verso of Ee 2, the Queen's order for annexing the three last mentioned Forms of Prayer, etc. to the Book of Common Prayer; "A New Version of the Psalms of David, Fitted to the Tunes Used in Churches. By N. Tate and N. Brady," pp. 77 (sigs. A–Y, in twos); Alphabetical Table of the Psalms, Directions, and an Erratum, 2 pp. (verso of Y 1 and recto of Y 2).

I am indebted to Mr. Frederic D. Stone of the library of the Historical Society of Pennsylvania, for the information that there were at least two issues of this edition. Mr. Brinley's copy belongs to the earlier of the two. In the Psalter, as Bradford first printed it, Psalms xii.–xvii. were omitted. The signatures are regular. Psalm xi. begins on verso of R 2 and ends (with verse 8) on recto of R 3—and is immediately followed by Psalm xviii. When the omission was discovered, Bradford, it appears, supplied it, by printing the last verse of Psalm xi., and Psalms xii.–xvii. in course, on a single leaf, to be inserted between R 2 and R 3. This made the Psalter complete,— but left a doublet of Ps. xi. 8, at the beginning of R 3. This extra leaf is inserted in one of the two copies belonging to the Penn. Historical Society, the title-page of which differs in type and arrangement from that of the earlier issue.

3451 PUGH (ELLIS) A Salutation to the Britains, To Call them From the Many Things, to the One Thing needful, for the Saving of their Souls, etc. Translated from the British Language by Rowland Ellis, Revis'd and Corrected by David Lloyd, pp. xv. (1), 222, large fresh copy, in the original binding, neat.

sm. 8° Philadelphia, S. Keimer, for W. Davies, Bookbinder, 1727

A fine copy of this VERY RARE book. It is an excellent specimen of Keimer's best work and (probably) of W. Davies's best binding. It has the name of "Lydia Lancaster, her Book, given by her friend David Lloyd Judge of Pencilvainia." There are several manuscript corrections of the text, which were probably made by Chief Justice Lloyd, who is named on the title-page as the reviser of the translation. Ellis Pugh was a Quaker preacher, born in Wales, who settled at Gwynedd, Pa., in 1687.

3452 PUSEY (CALEB) Satan's | Harbinger Encountred, | His False | News of a Trumpet detected, | His Crooked | Ways in the Wildernesse | Laid open to the View of the Impartial and Iudicious. | Being Something by way of Answer to Daniel Leeds | his book, entituled, News of a Trumpet | sounding in the Wildernesse &c. . | . pp. (4), 115. 4° Philadelphia, Reynier Jansen, 1700

EXTREMELY RARE. For Leeds's "News of a Trumpet" to which this is a reply, see No. 3427.

In this Preface, the author gives some interesting information concerning Jansen and his press. "The substance of this book" he says, "was wrote near two years ago, but being backward in my self to appear in print, as also the press being long expected here before it came, and when come taken up with other important matters intervening, occasioned the delay of its publication till now . . . . The chief occasion of there being so many errours, was, that the Printer, being a man of another nation and language, as also not bred to that employment, consequently something unexpert both in language and calling, and the corrector's not being so frequently at hand as the case required," etc.

Leeds's book was printed by Bradford in New York, in 1697. Pusey's answer was probably written the same year,—when there was no press in Philadelphia; and, after this, the press was "long expected before it came." Thomas supposed (Hist. of Printing, II. 25) "that when Bradford removed to New York, in 1693, he left Jansen to manage a press in Philadelphia." It seems certain, however, that the new press was not set up before 1699. In that year were printed Jona. Dickinson's "God's Protecting Providence" (No. 3390) and Samuel Jenings's "Truth Rescued" (No. 3401).

3453 [PUSEY (CALEB)] The Bomb Search'd And found stuff'd with False Ingredients; being a Just Confutation of an abusive Printed Half-sheet, call'd a BOMB, originally published against the Quakers,

On p. 5, begins the Argument: "New-York, supream Court, in the Equity Side of the Exchequer, between The Attorney General Complainant, &.Rip Van Dam, Esq; Defendant." James Alexander and William Smith were Van Dam's counsel. The Argument is dated March 15, 1732–3.

The final hearing was on April 9th. For a history of the controversy between Gov. Cosby and Mr. Van Dam, President of the Council, as to the division of the salary and perquisites of the governor's office in the interval between the death of Gov. Montgomerie and Gov. Cosby's arrival in New York, — see Smith's History of New York, vol. II. pp. 4–6.

The type and make up are certainly J. P. Zenger's. The rudely-cut tail-piece (on page 51) is an easily-recognized mark of his press.

Bradford*, 1735. Five VERY SCARCE TRACTS in 1 vol., new half morocco (Roxburghe). 12°

"An Extract of the Minutes of the Commission of the Synod, relating to the Affair of Mr. Hemphill," pp. 13 (Phila., A. Bradford, 1735,) is laid in the volume.

The fourth tract is a rejoinder to Franklin's Defence of the "Observations" he wrote for Mr. Hemphill, his minister. (See No. 3197.) When the latter was arraigned for heresy Franklin "became his zealous partisan, and combated for him awhile with some hopes of success;" but "during the contest, an unlucky occurrence hurt his cause exceedingly." It was discovered that one of his best sermons had been borrowed from a printed discourse of Dr. Foster's. "I stuck by him, however,"—says Franklin; "I rather approved his giving us good sermons composed by others, than bad ones of his own manufacture; though the latter was the practice of our common teachers."—Life (Sparks), p. 126. The author of "Remarks upon the Defence" points out some of Mr. Hemphill's plagiarisms—or unconscious appropriations: "His Sermon on Mark xvi. 10. was borrowed (or rather stolen) from Dr. Clarke, an open Arian. His Sermons on Gal. vi. 15., on Rom. viii. 18, and on Psal. xli. 4, from Clarke's assistant, Dr. Ibbots; and his Sermon on Acts xxiv. 25, from Mr. Foster . . . Should our Ministry follow the Advice and imitate the Example of this Rev. Plagiary, a small Degree of Learning would qualify them for this sacred Trust, and a small Expense would supply them with Sermons to retail to their Audience, with equal Applause from Sabbath to Sabbath."—p. 18.

By order of Lord Cornbury, the Hope was seized, and the ship and cargo were condemned by a Court of Vice-Admiralty held at New Jersey, and sold. In these volumes he has much to say of himself and the grant to Sir Edward Plowden, "Earl of Albion" (Vol. I., pp. 11–16, 82–86, etc.), of agriculture, and of various other matters. He visited Gen. Washington, at Mount Vernon, and gives an interesting account of home-life there.

A duplicate from the Inner Temple Library, whose stamp is on the title and several other pages. This Collection is EXTREMELY RARE. It was not known to Jefferson or to Hening — who had seen no printed revisal or body of Virginia laws, between Purvis's Collection (1682) and the Williamsburg edition of 1733. Hening (Preface to Statutes at Large, vol. I. pp. vi, vii,) alludes to the fact that thousands of the descendants of Indians had been made Slaves, under a decision of the supreme court of Virginia, in the belief that an Act of 1691, "For a Free Trade with Indians," — which he printed from a manuscript copy, — was not passed before 1705. It is found, in its proper place, with the Acts of 1691, in this volume (p. 160).

The plate of Adam and Eve is omitted. The 24 plates of Virginian subjects, and the 5 plates of Picts, have the small numbers, and the number and endings of lines of description agree with the last column of Sobolewski's collation (see Sabin's Dictionary, III. 60, and Brunet, vol. I. col. 1317), except for plate XXII, which has 18 lines, the first ending in "sepulturam" (as in an exceptional copy mentioned by Sobolewski). The Narrative pages (preceding the Plates) are, as usual, discolored. The plates are, generally, well preserved. The volume measures, on the page, 13⅝ by 9⅝ inches. It is believed to be complete, with the exceptions noted, but will be sold not subject to collation.

A GOOD COPY of this SCARCE book, in the ORIGINAL EDITION, CORRECTED. Like the copy described in Mr. Sabin's bibliographical note (see the next number), two varieties of paper are found in the volume, that used for sign. X and for part of the Appendix, being slightly inferior to the rest, and somewhat discolored. In the title pages, both of the History and the Appendix, the word "Virginia" is in Italic capitals, and the letters are absolutely identical—even in their defects—with those in which the same word appears in the title of Mercer's Abridgment of the Laws, printed by W. Parks in 1737: and the same typographical ornaments, made up in the same fashion, for page-heads and initial letters, occur in these two volumes. But the collation does not agree with that of either of the two editions described by Mr. Sabin. The error in page-number 104 (misprinted 410, in his copy) is corrected: sig. S is correctly paged, 257–272, and so on to the end of sig. U, p. 304: but sig. X (on the inferior and yellowish paper) is mispaged, 295–310, and the error runs on through sigs. Y and Z, to the end on recto of Z3, mispaged 331 (for 341), as in the "edition" of 1753; moreover, this copy has "signature marks on pages 21 and 119;" the "line across the page, over the foot-note" on page 308, is omitted; and the capital J, on page i. of the Appendix is in Italic—as in "the London edition"— though this page of the Appendix is in the title-form, and on the sixth leaf of sig. Z, the type and ornaments of which unmistakably mark it as from Parks's press. Sig. Aa (pp. 5–12) and sigs. Cc and Dd (pp. 21–34) of the Appendix are on the same yellowish paper as sig. X.: and the lines across the pages, over the foot-notes, are omitted on pp. 21 and 27, but retained elsewhere.

This compactly-printed little volume must be VERY RARE. It seems nearly unknown to bibliographers. The author, a French protestant, describes himself as a native of Dauphiny and of the family of Durand. The object of the publication appears to have been, to direct French emigration to Virginia. The last four pages are occupied with "Propositions pour la Virginie," signed by Nicholas Hayward, London, May 39, 1687, for "Messieurs les Proprietaires de la terre scitueé proche la Comté de Stafford en Virginie . . et de la ville qu'on a commencé d' y bâtir, apellée Brenton,"—for the encouragement of planters.

EXTREMELY RARE. Though Williams's name appears on the title-page, "the whole substance of it was communicated to [him] by a Gentleman of merit and quality, . . . Mr. John Farrer of Geding." This is the FIRST EDITION. The second was published the same year, and some copies of it were bound with Williams's "Virginia's Discovery of Silke Wormes" etc. (see the next title), under the general title of "Virginia: more especially the South part thereof, richly and truly valued," etc. (*T. A GOOD COPY of this curious and VERY RARE tract. "Sir R. Mountgomry of Skelmorley in the Sheridom of Aire in North Britain, Baronet," obtained of the Lords Proprietors of Carolina the grant of all the lands between the Alatamaha and Savannah Rivers, and gave to this tract the name of the "Margravate of Azilia." In this publication he offers inducements to purchasers and intending settlers on his lands. The engraved plan —very ingenious and thoroughly impracticable—represents "the Form of setling the Districts or County Divisions in the Margravate of Azilia." See RICH, 1717, no. 2.

desolation of the Colony," to the misrepresentations and mal-administration of Governor Oglethorpe, and to the unwise restrictions imposed by him on the colonists—and "chiefly the Denying the Use of Negroes, and persisting in such Denial after, by repeated Applications, we had humbly remonstrated the Impossibility of making Improvements to any Advantage with white Servants." .. "By these and many other such Hardships, the poor Inhabitants of Georgia are scatter'd over the Face of the Earth; her Plantations a Wild; her Towns a Desert, .. and her Liberties a Jest: An Object of Pity to Friends, and of Insult, Contempt, and Ridicule to Enemies." The volume is of typographical as well as historical importance—as a very early production of the southern press. The printer, Peter Timothy, was the son of Lewis, and began business on his own account, in 1740. Books with a Charleston imprint, before 1750, are RARE.

Grossbrit. Commissarii und der beyden Salzburgischen Prediger, wie auch eine Beschreibung von Georgien enthalten. 10 Parts, in 2 vols., Map and Portrait of Tomo Chachi, boards. 4° Halle, 1739–44

This important and scarce collection comprises a narrative of the emigration of the persecuted Salzburgers to America; of their settlement at Ebenezer, in Georgia, about 25 miles from Savannah; and of the progress of that colony, and other matters of interest to the emigrants and to their friends in Europe, in the form of a Journal written by their two ministers, J. M. Bolzius and I. C. Gronau, and sent to the Rev. Samuel Urlsperger, a protestant minister at Augsburg, by whom they were published,—with the addition of many other papers relating to German Protestants in America, to the Indians and missionary labors among them, and to current events in Georgia and Carolina, etc.

A full collation of the work (including the eight continuations published after 1744) is given by Leclerc, Bibliotheca Americana, 1867, no. 1510.

Not less scarce than the preceding work, of which it is a continuation and necessary complement. The Fourth volume (published by J. A. Urlsperger, in 1767), is particularly rare. It was wanting in the set of Urlsperger's publications which Leclerc catalogued as a "collection COMPLETE PRÉCIEUSE" (Bibl. Amer. 1867, no. 1510). The 3d vol. contains a portrait of Bolzius, the senior minister of the colony at Ebenezer.

This exchange was under a cartel between Benedict Arnold and Capt. Geo. Forster.

"— Arnold stationed Bedel of New Hampshire, with about four hundred men and two cannon, at the narrow pass of the Cedars. This pass was but fifteen leagues above Montreal, and [Gen.] Thomas, at Sorel, was but as many leagues distant below... The detachment from Detroit under Captain Forster, .. appeared in sight of the Cedars .. Butterfield [to whom Bedel had abandoned the command] surrendered himself and his garrison prisoners at discretion .. Arnold moved, to recover the captives, by force; but as the British officer declared that a massacre of the prisoners, 474 in number, would be the inevitable consequence of an attack, he consented to obtain the release of them all, except four captains who were retained as hostages, by promising the return of an equal number of British prisoners. The engagement led to mutual criminations; the justification of the breach of one treaty by the neglect of another."—BANCROFT, Centen. Ed., v. 296.
